WE WELCOME YOU!

There are many good reasons for coming to church, but we hope that your joining us this morning includes the best reason: to thank and worship God for His amazing love revealed in the birth, life, and ministry, the suffering and death, and the wondrous resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ! This is what our church is all about! If you are visiting today, please fill out a guest card and bring it to our Welcome Center in the foyer and receive a free gift. Thank you ... and visit us again!

The mission of our church is to prayerfully prepare believers for worshiping God, serving Christ, loving one another, and reaching out to others!

2016 YEAR VERSE:

"Watch, stand fast in the faith, be brave, be strong."
- I Corinthians 16:13

OUR THANKS to all who helped take down and put away all of the Christmas decorations this past Wednesday afternoon. Your work was much appreciated!

DON'T FORGET to check out the Christmas greetings to all of us at Grace Bible! They are posted on the door on the south side of the gymnasium!

A list of January birthdays and anniversaries of regular-attenders of Grace Bible is on the kitchen door. Please make (legible) corrections/additions right on the list. Thank you!

DIDN'T GET YOUR COPY of the new January 2016 issue of our "in-house" newsletter, "Grace Notes"? Copies are at the Welcome Desk as well as various other locations around the church.

This Week in Church History...

On January 13, 1836, Alexander Whyte was born in Forfarshire, Scotland. A Free Church of Scotland clergyman, in 1909 he became minister of the largest and most influential congregation of his denomination and New Testament professor at New College, Edinburgh. His aggressiveness at "weeding out" the lazy among both ministers and students earned him the title "the last of the Puritans."

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK...

"Posterity will some day laugh at the foolishness of modern materialistic philosophy. The more I study nature, the more I am amazed at the Creator."

~ Louis Pasteur (1822-1895)

PRAISE & PETITION

“With my mouth I will make your faithfulness known throughout all generations.”

~ Psalm 89:1

Praise the Lord for:

1. His faithfulness, which reaches to the skies (Ps. 36:7)!
2. The fact we have a God who hears and answers our prayers.
3. The strength God gives to us!
4. The salvation we have in Jesus Christ by faith in Him! What a blessing to have sins forgiven and assurance of Heaven! Reconciliation with God!
5. The fact that greater is He that is in us (Jesus) than he that is in the world (Satan). WE ARE VICTORS IN CHRIST!
6. The moving of the Spirit of God in our individual lives and in the life of our church!

Petition the Lord for:

1. More courage to stand for what we know is true and Godly!
2. More willingness to change things in our lives as the Spirit convicts us.
3. A growing passion for things that count for eternity.
4. All of our Sunday School teachers, Children's Church teachers, AWANA staff, Youth staff, Nursery workers; for strength, encouragement, and wisdom!
5. Lena Lengal (broken foot); Lucas Keller (broken foot); Ginny Wilson (Amber Chisamore's mother) - cancer; Irijah Manning (broken collar bone); Chris Piano (torn ligament in foot); Sarah Piano (jaw surgery recuperation)
6. Sean Begaye, in Afghanistan; Adam Sowers (Ft. Hood); Kyle Prendergast (Ophelia Krupica's son), stationed (Air Force) in Germany; Jesus, Jessalyn, and Nora Ubanda (Okinawa, Japan); Whitney Pratt (Air Force; Middle East); Jared Payton (San Antonio, Texas)
7. Our President, military advisors, military men and women.
8. Ladies in our church who are “expecting.”

“Sharing the Gospel: The Salvation Verses!” (Part 1)

John 3:13-21

Two weeks ago, we looked at spreading the Gospel - the good news! - concerning Jesus Christ. We are told by our Lord to do this, and our sharing the Gospel is the only way that people are going to trust in Jesus! There are people all around us who are on their way to Hell because they have not yet put their faith in Jesus Christ, Who died for them and rose from the dead. We need to ask God for “Divine appointments” to share the Gospel, and then share it! There is an inherent blessing in doing so! Over the next few weeks, we are going to look together at some of the verses we all can and should use when we share the Gospel. Today: John 3:16 “For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life.”

the 1980s, the number of people in the population aged 65 and over has increased from 10.5 to 13.5%.

There is a need to understand the needs of the elderly population, and to provide services that are appropriate to their needs. This paper reports on a study of the needs of elderly people in the community, and the implications for service provision.

Better LIFE!

Enriching Personal and Family Relationships
an edition of Better Families

Work It Out

Let me ask you a question, the same question you should be asking yourself, not only about your love relationship but also your relationship with your children, your boss, your co-workers, and your friends. Do you want the relationship to work? If so, then you must take personal responsibility for making it work. And forget the word “trying.” Trying is just a noisier way of not doing something.

I know two people who have been married for twenty-five years. They are an inspiration to others. They seem to be courting each other all the time. Whenever they see each other, both light up with joy. It's obvious that they're best friends. It's easy to accentuate the negative, but these two do everything they can to point out the positive and bring out the best in each other. They are both committed to doing whatever it takes to show respect and unconditional appreciation.

Ken Blanchard, THE HEART OF A LEADER

Grandparent Love

The grandparent who impacts his grandchild's life is the one willing to kneel down to the child's level, to laugh at what he or she laughs at, to cry at what makes him or her tearful.

Eric Wiggin,
THE GIFT OF GRANDPARENTING

Music of the Heart

Music has power. Music has the ability to mold and shape the values, attitudes, and behaviors of our children and teens. The world of music changes constantly; new bands come and old bands go. While the task may seem overwhelming, parents must take the time to know what is happening on the popular music scene. While your children may or may not spend four to six hours a day listening to and watching music, they are living in a world where most teens do. Our kids are part of a youth culture that is defined and directed by the music and musicians they listen to. By knowing the world of music you will be better equipped to know your teen, understand the world of teenagers, and lead your child into a healthy adulthood.

In short, your kids know music. The music industry knows your kids. Get to know your kids by getting to know their music.

Walt Mueller, UNDERSTANDING TODAY'S YOUTH CULTURE

Some Roads Are Rocky

Winston Churchill had problems in reading, suffered from a speech defect, and was hyperactive. He was placed in the lowest form (grade), where the slow boys were taught English. Albert Einstein failed several math courses in his school career. Louis Pasteur failed the entrance exams to medical school and was known as a hardworking plodder. Thomas Edison had severe memory problems and said of school, "I remember that I was never able to get along at school. I was always at the foot of the class. I used to feel that the teachers did not sympathize with me, and that my father thought I was stupid." Author and poet Amy Lowell had math problems, and Woodrow Wilson, who did not learn the letters of the alphabet until he was nine, became the twenty-seventh president of the United States. Work through the tough spots with your child, they just may surprise you.

Cheri Fuller, UNLOCKING YOUR CHILD'S LEARNING POTENTIAL

Touch A Life

Most of us could track the number of people we touch in a day. Think about it. Each encounter, no matter how brief, would count. Your spouse and children, the crossing guard you wave to as you leave for work, the attendant at the gas station, your coworkers, the clerk at the post office, the kid who sells you burgers and fries for dinner, the friend you chat with on the phone or via e-mail—the list might be long, but not impossible to make.

Now think: What is your touch on these lives? Some people you touch consistently—like those in your family or at work. Others you touch here and there—perhaps casual friends or people you volunteer with in your community.

And some you touch just once in a while in a random way. Of course, no one turns to gold or chocolate when your hand, your voice, or your influence touches them. But you can still leave a lasting impression that changes the course of their hours, their days, even their lives.

When Jesus walked the earth, people everywhere wanted to touch him and be touched by him. Through his touch, the blind could see and the lame could walk. The sick were healed. And people caught in the snare of sin were set free. No wonder the crowds clamored for the touch of the Savior!

Do people long for your touch or do you sense that they draw back? Is your touch as valuable as gold to your loved ones, as sweet as chocolate? Or is it hard as nails? Does your touch bring blessing and healing to the people around you or pain and heartache?

Amy Nappa, A WOMEN'S TOUCH
