WE WELCOME YOU!

There are many good reasons for coming to church, but we hope that your joining us this morning includes the best reason: to thank and worship God for His amazing love revealed in the birth, life, and ministry, the suffering and death, and the wondrous resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ! This is what our church is all about! If you are visiting today, please fill out a guest card and bring it to our Welcome Center in the foyer and receive a free gift. Thank you ... and visit us again!

The mission of our church is to prayerfully prepare believers for worshiping God, serving Christ, loving one another, and reaching out to others!

2015 YEAR VERSE:

“In God is my salvation and my glory. The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.”

- Psalm 62:7

THE ELDERS are considering appointing Angela Silva to the Deaconess Board. If you have questions or concerns about this, please see Pastor John or Steve Knox.

---

CALLING ALL GRADUATES: Are you graduating soon from high school, college, grad school, nursing school (etc.)? Please contact Pastor John or Pastor Steve as soon as possible so that we can recognize you on “Graduation Sunday” (May 3)!

OUR PRAYERS AND SYMPATHIES are extended to the family and friends of Nellie Wero, who went home to be with the Lord this past Friday. Funeral arrangements are pending.

This Week in Church History...

On May 1, 1873, David Livingstone (b. 1813), Scottish missionary and explorer, died. He began to study medicine and theology at age 17, and arrived as a missionary in South Africa ten years later. In 1857, he resigned from his sponsoring agency, the London Missionary Society, but returned to Africa under the British government to search for the source of the Nile and to eradicate the slave traffic. When he died, the natives found him on his knees. His body was returned to England, but his heart was buried in Africa.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK...

"The resurrection of Jesus demands not our applause but our allegiance, not our compliments but our capitulation."

~ John Blanchard

PRAISE & PETITION

“O sing to the Lord a new song, for He has done wonderful things; His right hand and His holy arm have gained the victory for Him.”

~ Psalm 98:1

Praise the Lord for:

1. The fact that our God is a wonderful God!
2. The suffering Jesus did in our place, to pay for our sins; eternal life and forgiveness of sins through Jesus, as we put our personal faith in Him!
3. The privilege of worshipping Him!
4. The wonderful work of the Holy Spirit of God - for giving us the ministry of reconciliation and restoration!
5. Entrusting us with the Gospel, opportunities to share it!

Petition the Lord for:

1. More of a desire to “make the most of our time” for the Lord Jesus.
2. Continued growth in the grace and knowledge of Jesus Christ. (1 Peter 3:18)
3. Taylor and Heather Jones, as they were married yesterday.
4. Family and friends of Nellie Wero, who went home to be with the Lord this past Friday.
5. Charles & Mildred Schoolcraft (struggling with health issues); Mike Lengal (recuperating); Ray Alonzo (hip surgery June 16); EJ Charles (undergoing continued medical treatments)
6. Ricky Lee (Nellie Lee’s son) and Sean Begaye, in Afghanistan; Adam Sowers (Ft. Hood); Kyle Prendergast (Ophelia Krupica’s son), stationed (Air Force) in Germany.
7. Our President, military advisors, military men and women.

“My Redeemer Lives!”
Job 19:23-27

“I know my Redeemer, I know my Redeemer lives,

I know my Redeemer lives!

I know that I know that I know that I know

That I know!

Because He lives I can face tomorrow!

I spoke with Him this morning!

THE TOMB IS EMPTY!

I gotta tell everybody!...”

Bank On It

To divorce-proof your marriage, be sure you are making more “deposits” to the well-being of your spouse than “withdrawals.”

A deposit is anything positive and security-producing that gives your mate energy. It’s a gentle touch, a listening ear, a verbalized “I love you!” a fun shared experience. A withdrawal is anything sad or negative that drains energy from your mate. It’s a harsh word, a promise not kept, being ignored, hurt or controlled.

The more you keep a positive balance in your relationship account, with “giving” deposits exceeding “draining” withdrawals, the more secure your relationship will be. There’s something very basic about the saying, “If you’re happy, I’m happy. If you’re energized, I’m energized.”

Dr. Gary Smalley, FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

Balancing Act

We face a crisis of imbalance. At times, we pull ourselves out of the culture, believing that contact with anything “worldly” will compromise our holiness. At other times, we are so closely aligned with the world that we uncritically assimilate values and behaviors that are contrary to God’s will. We must learn to walk the tightrope of living for God in the context of the postmodern culture. By striking the proper balance we are, by God’s grace, living in obedience in the culture, and modeling true, biblical discipleship for all those who come to faith.

Maintain

God has fashioned the human body to be very resilient, but it requires proper maintenance. Our bodies need a balance of exercise, nutrition, work and relaxation. When you violate the natural physical laws, your health gets in a dangerous condition, shortchanging your body’s ability to combat stress.

When this condition is left alone for too long, your emotional life is affected by it, directly affecting the way you interact with others. When the physical body and the mind are out of balance, this also throws your spiritual life out of whack.

Take a personal inventory. Re-evaluate your lifestyle, and weigh the cost of how you are living. Make the adjustments necessary to bring your life into balance. The return is a long and vibrant physical, emotional and spiritual life.

A Common Thread

The need for relationships has been hard-wired into man since the foundation of the world. We were, after all, created in the image of a God who has been in a triune relationship with the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit for all eternity. Given that background, it's no wonder that He would want the men and women He created to experience the same sort of fellowship and unity with Him and with each other that He experiences as a member of the Trinity.

From Genesis on, the pages of Scripture are sprinkled with narrative accounts of people and their relationships. Some, like David, walked closely with God, and it showed in their dealings with their fellow man. Others like Cain, refused to relate to God in the proper way, and their lack of fellowship with Him led to broken relationships with others. A common thread ties together the Old Testament characters that enjoyed healthy relationships, they stayed within the God ordained relational parameters known as the Ten Commandments. Likewise the people who were relationally dysfunctional disregarded the ten mandates that form the foundation upon which God's instruction or relationships rests.

Thomas Addington, & Stephen Graves
DAMAGE CONTROL

Kids Perspective

One day instead of serving the usual hot meal, the school cafeteria handed out peanut butter and jelly sandwiches. After lunch, a satisfied first grader marching out the door complimented the cafeteria manager: "Finally, you gave us a home-cooked meal!"

A Magic Key

Admit it, how you budget your money or spend it or squander it or save and invest it is about what's inside you. The love of money, the Bible claims, is the root of all evil. Like a magic key, money unlocks the secret loves of a person's heart. Money is about power and control, about what's really important to people. That's why money without self-restraint is self-destructive, even addictive, and why it is so utterly necessary to give money away.
