3. The privilege of worship and prayer!
4. His sovereignty!
5. Family and friends, both "near and far".

Petition the Lord for:

1. Those who are lonely and/or depressed this holiday season.
2. Those who will be traveling to see family and friends.
3. Families in our church going through the rough waters of life at this time. (Isa. 43:1,2)

THE BRAVEHEARTED MAN

MEN'S CONFERENCE
WITH ERIC LUDY

It's a weekend designed to stick the grit back in the Christian man, the pluck back in the preacher, the growl back in the father, the purpose back in the husband, and the life back in the believer. With patented Ellerslie tenacity, gumption, and straightforwardness, this conference will pull no punches and promise no comfort. It will not be a retreat, but rather, a call to the front lines of war. Yes, it is a conference, but it is unashamedly a conference with an agenda. And that is, to see men made ready, in this hour of dire need, to live strongly, suffer joyfully, and die singing for the Glory of Jesus Christ.

SO, WHO'S IN?

WE WELCOME YOU!

There are many good reasons for coming to church, but we hope that your joining us this morning includes the best reason: to thank and worship God for His amazing love revealed in the birth, life, and ministry, the suffering and death, and the wondrous resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ! This is what our church is all about! If you are visiting today, please fill out a guest card and bring it to our Welcome Center in the foyer and receive a free gift. Thank you... and visit us again!

The mission of our church is to prayerfully prepare believers for worshiping God, serving Christ, loving one another, and reaching out to others!

2013 YEAR VERSE

"Let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds."

- Hebrews 10:24

TODAY (7 PM) is the deadline to suggest a "Year Verse" for our church for 2014! Suggestions can be written out (please include which version of the Bible) and given to Pastor John or placed in the offering plate.

THE ELDERS are considering Lucas and Cora Lucio for "official" church membership. If you have any questions or concerns about this, please contact Mike Nye or Pastor John. Thank you!

DON'T FORGET to check out the Christmas greeting to all of us at Grace Bible! Posted on the door on the south side of the gymnasium!

Ugochi Uduma (full-time nursing student at UNM) is looking for a nanny/babysitter. Please call her at (504)575-2218 if you (or someone you know) are interested in and/or have questions about this position. Thank you!

WE NEED YOUR HELP taking down Christmas decorations!

This Friday evening, January 3, 6 PM!

Come and help and have a great time of fellowship!

Backdating is not allowed by the IRS. See Paul Schell for advice."

This Week in Church History...

On December 31, 1384, John Wycliffe (b.1328), English reformer and theologian, died. Though raised in the Catholic church, Wycliffe was repulsed by the "Babylonian Captivity" (1305-77) of the papacy in Avignon, France, and embarrassed at having two popes during the Great Schism (1378-1417). In his disdain, Wycliffe turned to the Scriptures and early church fathers for guidance. He eventually developed his own view of the true church. Wycliffe maintained that every person is a servant of God, and that the church does not provide the only access to grace nor possess the right to unquestioned secular sovereignty. Known as "the Morning Star of the Reformation." Wycliffe received support for his ideas among the aristocracy in England, especially after 1380. His writings also had a major influence on England's poorer clergy, such as the Lollards, and on others, such as Czech scholar John Huss. Wycliffe spent his last four years in retirement, devoting himself to a new translation of the Bible - the first translation of the Scriptures into English.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK...

"We are to evangelize not because it is pleasant, not because it is easy, not because we may be successful, but because Christ has called us. He is our Lord. We have no other choice but to obey Him."

~ Leighton Ford
