Reflection + Response:
Reader:
God is good; and God is great. And our chief end is to glorify him. This is what we were made for. This is where we find our purpose, our true self. Diametrically opposed to our culture’s devotion of trying to find happiness and meaning in self-autonomy, it is in the surrendering of our will that we, ironically, find true meaning and peace. May we come to see that true peace only comes through a true surrender of self; and when we resist you and your ways, Lord, overcome our resistance and make us yours.

People:
Lord, may it be.

Today’s Scripture Reading:
Reader:
...24So Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him till daybreak. 25When the man saw that he could not overpower him, he touched the socket of Jacob’s hip so that his hip was wrenched as he wrestled with the man. 26Then the man said, “Let me go, for it is daybreak.” But Jacob replied, “I will not let you go unless you bless me.”... 28Then the man said, “Your name will no longer be Jacob, but Israel, because you have struggled with God and with men and have overcome...”

Genesis 32:22-32

People:
May the Lord add his blessing to the reading, hearing, and doing of His holy Word.

CG Discussion Questions
For the Week of November 9th - 15th

Here are this week’s discussion questions based on the Nov. 9th sermon, Struggling + Limping — GENESIS: The Lineage Pt. 6 and covering Genesis chapter 32.

We invite you to work through these questions and text on your own and/or with a friend; and we also hope you connect with a Community Group to go through them with others. Remember, God's Word gives us spiritual vitality and his Word is always best understood within community (i.e., with others). So, this week, come to Community Group ready discuss Genesis 32 and these questions.

1. Let’s consider the backdrop and context of Genesis 32...
   • By the time we get to chapter 32, the now prosperous Jacob had listened to God and began the journey back to his homeland (31:13, 17-18).
   • It had been 20 years since Jacob left his homeland, fleeing from his older brother, Esau, who wanted to kill him (27:41-42). As Jacob approaches, he sends messengers ahead of him to Esau in attempt to find favor (32:3-5).
   • The messengers returned to Jacob with a message that Esau is coming to meet him and he has 400 men (32:6). Yikes! Jacob thinks Esau is coming to kill him and he makes preparations (32:7-23).

2. Read 32:9-12. What is Jacob asking of the Lord in this prayer? What evidence do you see in this prayer of a changed heart/attitude in Jacob?

3. Read 32:24-30. Jacob began the night alone (32:24). Why do you think he wanted to be alone?

4. Who is the mysterious wrestler? How is the identity of the mysterious wrestler slowly revealed? What are the pieces of evidence?

5. Who won the wrestling match? Jacob? The wrestler? Both?

6. The encounter with the wrestler is a watershed moment for Jacob. In what way was the mysterious wrestler an answer to Jacobs’s prayer (in 32:9-12) and, for that matter, all of Jacob’s inner longings?

7. The message on Sunday was that “true peace only comes through true surrender.” What does challenge mean? What are we to surrender and to who?
