

Bethany's Testimony

I was raised in a Christian home and was saved when I was four years old, but there was a time when my marriage was not centered in Christ. Instead it was centered in selfishness. I didn't hesitate to unload any anger or frustration that I was feeling on my husband. Most of our communication consisted of arguments that often grew to shouting matches. I shudder to think of the hurtful things I have said to my husband. I found myself praying for change but most of those prayers ended with me tearfully throwing my hands up in defeat saying to myself "I can't change, this is just how my marriage is going to be for the rest of my life and I just have to live with it". I felt helpless and hopeless. It was then that I learned with God all things are possible. God taught me how to pray for my husband with an unselfish love that only comes from Him. He taught me that I alone cannot change but that He is able to do exceedingly and abundantly more than I could ever ask or think. He has taught me to lean wholly upon Him in every situation. He has done more than just change my behavior, He has transformed my being. Now we have a Christ centered marriage full of love and respect. We talk about everything and we rarely argue. I praise God every day for how He's changed me and healed my marriage.
