

New Worship & Study Emphasis Following Easter

“WHICH WAY, LORD?” is a new worship and study series based on the book by Pastor Rob Fuquay. We’ll look at what happened when Saul encountered the Resurrected Christ and how that changed his life forever. This isn’t just a matter of ancient history. What we learn from Paul will provide tools, guidance, and questions for personal application that can shape your life and faith today.

JOIN US IN WORSHIP AT 8:30 OR 11:00 AM

April 8 - Christ is Risen! Now What?

April 15 - Preparing for Purpose

April 22 - Taking Stock

April 29 - Facing Adversity

May 6 - Dealing with Detours

May 13 - Relying on God

May 20 - Developing Tenacity

FOR DEEPER STUDY

Participation in a 6 week study group involves a weekly reading from the reading book by each participant at home; viewing a 12-13 minute video in your small group; and allowing the discussion guides to assist your conversation. Reading books are $8 each and available in the church office. Please contact the facilitator below or Donna Ford in the church office to obtain materials.

SOME OF OUR EXISTING GROUPS ARE STUDYING THIS SERIES DURING THE EASTER SEASON. YOU ARE ALSO WELCOME TO JOIN ONE OF THESE NEW STUDY GROUPS:

Wednesday evenings beginning April 11 – Room A4 – 6:30-7:30 p.m. Facilitator – Matt Smith, msmith@guilfordcollegeumc.org, 336-292-5833

Thursday mornings beginning April 12 – Room A4 – 9:30-10:30 a.m. Facilitator – Matt Smith, msmith@guilfordcollegeumc.org, 336-292-5833

Sunday mornings beginning April 15 – Room C1 – 9:45-10:45 a.m. Facilitator – Bill Brubaker, wbrubaker@bellsouth.net, 336-292-5656