February 2: Local Treasures and Current Happenings in the Kansas Anthropological & Archeological community - Kent Sallee a member of the Kansas Anthropological Association, Mud Creek Chapter will share about fascinating local archeological finds!

February 16: A Season to Prepare - As adults we plan for birthdays, holidays and even for weddings. While we plan for all of our special events we should also plan for events that are not so special. Set a path of preparedness that becomes as simple as tying your shoes.

March 2: The Zoo is Coming to You – The Bug Lady and her animal friends are coming for a visit! We will learn about habitats, animal's diets, and animal biology, with tons of interesting and fun facts, up to 20+ animals ranging from tarantulas to lizards will come for the visit.

March 16: The Pioneer Movement into this Territory - Michael Hook, the Director of the Dickinson County Heritage Center will be sharing about Dickinson County's unique history of the cattle drives, agriculture development, early settlers, telephony industry and carousel manufacturing separates it from all other counties in Kansas.

April 6: Cowboys & Clerics - Join us to discuss how abolitionists, early missions, and the temperance movement all played a role in the lives of religious leaders in Kansas.

April 20: Opera House Culture on the Kansas Frontier - Opera houses were homes to important community events such as dramatic productions, commencements, and traveling theater performances. This presentation explores how settlers arriving from European countries and Eastern U.S. cities brought with them ideas of the cultural life they wanted to establish.

May 4: Kansas Legends & Folktales - Kansas is a place of big skies and tall tales, but these exaggerated narratives help us understand the character of our state and its people. This talk will explore some of the many Kansas legends and folktales and help audiences decipher between a myth (folk religion), legend (folk history), and tale (folk literature).
