

WMU Pink Sheep Craft Fair

Highland Terrace Baptist Church WMU is excited to announce that their group will sponsor a Fall Pink Sheep Craft Fair on October 27, 2018.

WMU, the Women's Ministry of HTBC is making preparations for their 1st Craft Fair that will be hosted in the Family Center of Highland Terrace Baptist Church from 9am to 3pm. This event will highlight local crafters and give them a chance to show off their best crafts. It is a wonderful way to fellowship and be able to get acquainted with people from all across the community in various churches and organizations.

There are many creative people in Greenville and the Hunt County area and this is a great way to show off their talents! Individuals, church groups, non-profits, classes, families, anyone is welcome to have a booth.

Proceeds help support HTBC WMU ministry. WMU sponsors Women in Need, pregnancy centers, nursing homes, and our local hospital just to name a few. A group of ladies meet every Thursday to sew clothes, backpacks, stuffed animals, just about anything a needle and thread can hold together these ladies can do it! Items are distributed not only overseas to churches and orphanages but locally as well to your churches, hospitals and nursing homes. A few of the places that have been served by WMU are the Philippines, India, Nepal, Cambodia, and Nicaragua.

Almost anyone with a craft idea can reserve a booth. Vendor guidelines and vendor applications can be downloaded from the church's website, www.highlandterrace.net in the "events" section. the deadline for registering to secure a craft booth is October 13th. There is only space available for about 60 booths so make your reservation soon!

Carolyn Thumann, from the WMU Team, will be the person in charge of this year's event and can be contacted by email or phone at carolyn@electricinc.us or call 903-883-2903.
