MUSINGS on a Spring Evening

It's evening as I write this. The sun is finally starting to hang out in the western sky bathing the world in soft evening light. It seems like a quiet and tranquil evening and it is. I am joyfully, gratefully exhausted. And I know I am not the only one.

Can you feel the energy in and out of this place? I walk across the parking lot in the mornings with a schedule of things to expect only to have each day surprise me. We are a congregation growing in much more substantial ways than just numbers.

On almost every evening there are adults gathering together, opening up scripture and deepening their faith through God's sacred story. Whether it is GPS, the Women's and Men's Bible studies, the many Circles or the Tuesday morning group, we are taking scripture seriously. Wednesday, the day that the church is supposedly quiet if you believe the signage is a bustle of activity, when the laughter of the 612 youth subsides you can hear the sound of the Choir's singing echoing through the building.

In the Abbey there is a constant flow of young adults busy at work with studying, hanging out, or playing board games. Many of them are now joining in the conversation of what to expect when we travel to South Dakota together to join the brothers of Taizé and the people of the Great Oglala Lakota Nation for a week of singing, prayer and listening. Added to all of this are the dozens of other activities that happen with the people of this community outside in our greater community.

The Spirit is at work in this community. I am not the only one to recognize this, daily I hear about folks like you and the ministries you are involved with. With so much going on, with so much to do there are nights like tonight where I am worn out and ready to rest. But is a good kind of tired brought about by being part of a faith community that is anything but sleep.

Peace,

Pastor Ben

This collection of principles is serving as a framework for the Minister of Worship and Music Call Process

Principles of Music and the Christian Assembly (Excerpt from the ELCA's Principles for Worship*)

Part I: The Nature of Music

Music is from God - God creates music as part of the whole creation and gives it to humankind to develop and shape.

The voice is the primary instrument in worship - In the church, the primary musical instrument is the human voice, given by God to sing and proclaim the word of God.

The assembly's song is central - Music is a communal and relational activity. The assembly is the primary musical ensemble, and its song is the core of all music in worship.

Musical expression is varied - A healthy tension between simple and complex music enriches the worshipping assembly.

Assembly song forms memory and nurtures faith - The assembly's song contributes to the spiritual formation of the assembly itself and its individual members. Used carefully and consistently over time, the song forms communal and individual memory and serves to nurture the faith from one generation to another.

Music involves the whole person - We worship God with our bodies, through singing, movement, dance, and gesture.

Part II: Music Serves and Shapes

Music serves the word of God - Music serves the word of God by bearing it in audible patterns and forms. Music proclaims and illuminates God's word, helping it resonate in the hearts and memory of the community and the individual.

Music serves the sacraments - Music surrounds and serves the celebration of the sacraments. As part of God's creation renewed in Christ, the people of God sing around the elements, words, and actions that bear God's grace.

Music shapes and surrounds prayer - Music in worship carries the assembly's prayer beyond words alone. Music shapes, nurtures, and assists the prayer of God's people.

Part III: Music Supports and Leads

The assembly is led in song - The singing assembly requires leadership.

The choir serves the assembly - Choirs lead, teach, and proclaim within the assembly.

Instruments and technology are used with care - Choices concerning the use of technology and instrumentation in worship are informed by the priority that is placed on congregational song.

Music is well crafted - Those who plan, compose, lead and make music are called upon to offer their very best to God and the assembly.

Part IV: Music Restores and Connects

Music serves the unity of the church - The church's song embraces traditions from other times and places throughout the world as well as the particularity of a specific congregation in one time and place.

PRAYER & FARE FUNDRAISER

Keep an eye out for the “Prayer and Fare” boards around the church. This is our “faithraiser” to send our 6.1.2 youth to Mingo County West Virginia.

Simply take an envelope, put your name on it and put anything from $10 in it. On the day you took make sure to pray for that youth and the experiences God will be giving them that day.

They will be sending postcards throughout the week updating you on the experience that you helped send them on!

An anniversary hymn:
For Many Years, O God of Grace
(Tune: Wie schon leuchtet, or How Brightly Shines the Morning Star)
Text: William M. Czamanske

For many years, O God of grace, this church has been your dwelling place
And we your congregation
On Christ, our precious cornerstone, our faith is built, and Christ alone
Is still our one foundation.
This day we pray, “Let us greet you, Lord, and meet you
Here with singing,
All our praises to you bringing.”

Here children have been born anew as manifold as morning dew,
Their vows to you confessing.
Here many found a table spread, they ate Christ’s body with the bread
And drank the cup of blessing.
This day we pray, “Let none falter at your altar. We adore you,
Gladly worship here before you.”

Here when the marriage vows were made, both bride and groom besought your aid,
Your love their own transcending.
Here mourners, with their troubled hearts, have found the peace your Word imparts,
The joy that has no ending.
This day we pray: “May the story of your glory here resounding
Be a song of grace abounding!”

Thank you Holy Cross members for the great response to the quilting project for Lutheran World Relief. It has succeeded beyond our dreams. We appreciate all the fabric, sewing and tying of the quilts by many of you. As of now we have finished 14 quilts and many more are in the process. We shall continue working on the quilts through the end of the year. If you have fabric, please hold on to it for our next years project. During the summer if you happen to come across a garage sale with old sheets or fabric remember our projects for the future! Thank you!

The loss of my dad, Walter, here on earth is really sad... but thanks to Jesus, he's with his Heavenly Father and that makes me really glad. Thank you very much for your regards and prayers. May the Spirit of Peace be with us all.

hearts, hands and voices announces expanded program August 12-15, 2013 at Holy Cross

Michael Burkhardt, artistic director of hearts, hands and voices worship and fine arts camp, has announced an expanded program for this summer. Slated for August 12 through August 15 at Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Livonia, the camp experience will be offered in three distinct modules:

- 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. - Campers entering Grades 2-7 in Fall 2013 will participate in the same immersion process our children have enjoyed since the summer of 2009, with hands-on experiences geared to providing lifelong tools for creating, appreciating and sharing music, participating in worship and leading productive lives in society.
- 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. – We invite camp alumni entering Grades 8 and above to return to camp as shepherds and assistants during the day followed by a worship and arts experience from 3 to 4 p.m. designed specifically for them.
- 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. Monday-Wednesday – Choir directors and music educators have the opportunity to participate in a three session workshop intended to equip these musicians to apply the process developed for the campers and extend it into their own context.

Tuition: The fee for day campers is $80 if registered by June 15, $90 thereafter. There is no tuition fee for camp alumni who assist during the day. There is also no fee for directors and educators who have children from their programs participating in camp. Directors/educators with no children participating are asked to pay $20 for the three-session workshop.

Registration deadline: July 31.

Funding appeal: Tuition covers approximately half the cost to offer this program. The other half of our funding comes from individual donations, corporate advertising and grants. Additionally we strive to have scholarships available for any camper requiring assistance. Please consider funding at least one $80 scholarship to help us make this possible.

Be our ambassadors: Please share this exciting news with everyone who cares about children and the arts. The website includes reproducible promotion materials to make the sharing easier. For additional information, including registration forms, visit our website:

FAITH FORUM APRIL—JUNE

Beginning Sunday, April 7, 2013 through Sunday, June 30th, those attending Faith Forum will be studying the book But God Meant It for Good - Lessons from the Life of Joseph by Ronnie McBrayer.

What will you find in the story of Joseph? Jealousy, deception, injustice, forgiveness, redemption. We read about his dysfunctional family and feel the corkscrew turns of deceit and rivalry. We experience with him a crippling, sudden stop when he is alone and abandoned in a Middle Eastern prison. Then the speed with which he rises to the seat of world power takes the air from our lungs. Through it all, and sometimes in spite of it, God brings Joseph's life to its intended destiny.

Ronnie McBrayer's exploration of Joseph's story help readers find themselves in these often overlooked pages of the Old Testament. However, this is not a "how-to" book. There are no keys for successful living or catchy alliterated principles to revolutionize your life. But readers who are trying to make sense of their lives, who are wondering what God is doing in some faraway heaven, or who feel that the chaos of life has little meaning, may discover a clue to what God is doing in their lives.

Ronnie McBrayer is a husband, father, pastor, and writer. He has served in pastoral leadership positions in church, healthcare, and non-profit settings. Ronnie maintains www.leavingsalem.net, an online catalog of his writings and a resource for those whose journey of Christian faith has taken them outside the traditional church.

His newspaper article series Keeping the Faith is published weekly and is the 2006 Florida Press Association award winner in religion.

Red Wagon Ministry

This program was developed to provide low-income preschool through 8th grade children, in an area of Wayne county known as Norwayne, a reading opportunity during the summer months. Beginning in June and continuing through the month of August, volunteers will travel the neighborhoods with book-filled red wagons dispensing books to the eagerly awaiting children. As in years past the need is greatest for children in grades 5 - 8.

Please support this worthy cause by purchasing one or more new books. You may bring your books to Holy Cross during the month of May. Collection bins have been provided and will be underneath the member mailboxes.

Thank you.

Palestinian Art Exhibit on Tour Throughout the United States

Coming to The Abbey at Holy Cross May 1-May 23

"Room for Hope" is on exhibition through the Spring of 2013. This special Palestinian art exhibit includes paintings, photography and multi-mediums by both Christian and Muslim artists in Bethlehem and the surrounding region. Much of the artwork is available for purchase.

The exhibit is the result of a juried call for art from artists living in the West Bank, Gaza and part of Israel. Sponsored by the Evangelical Lutheran Christmas Church, Bethlehem, Palestine, and the U.S. non-profit organization, Bright Stars of Bethlehem, the exhibit is part of a cultural initiative begun by the Reverend Dr. Mitri Raheb, Pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Christmas Church.

Raheb, interviewed in April, 2012 on the CBS news program 60 Minutes, says "As Palestinians, we're used to telling only the story of our suffering. However, the story of our successes and hopes needs to be told, as well. It's not good simply to depress our friends day and night, for we all need moments of being uplifted and charged with new strength....We need moments of joy and hope in the midst of all this hopelessness. Otherwise, we won't be able to continue our journey."

Bright Stars of Bethlehem supports the outreach programs of the Diyar Consortium in Palestine, bringing art, culture and education to both Christians and Muslims, in Raheb's words, "to empower people in a context of continuing conflict."
