

Sent by God

To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood, and has made us kings and priests to His God and Father, to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. Revelation 1:5-6

There seems to be a major earthquake somewhere in the world almost weekly. Mirroring that is major shaking and shifting in the spiritual realm redefining how the church emphasizes and expresses the Kingdom. Ideologies, philosophies and traditions of man that have wrongly restrained believers, are falling off like broken chains. A divine desire for a life of significance is calling us out of the safety of the boat and into our God given assignments. It is time to say “enough already” with the identity crisis in the church, and embrace that we are kings and priests to our God, Revelation 5:10. What a privilege to be living in a time when partnering with God's goodness and demonstrating His power to advance His kingdom is considered more and more to be normal Christianity. We are beginning to realize what Jesus meant when He prayed in John 17:18, As You sent Me into the world, I also have sent them into the world.
