Happy New Year 2019
Have you ever found yourself in a pitch-dark place? You cannot see anything. It is difficult to sense your relationship to anything around you for you cannot see. I once got lost in my room as a child. I know it seems kind of crazy, but I had no nightlight or window at that time and so there was no reference point in the darkness. That room also had two doors (one to the storage room and one exit) when I awoke in the night, with no point of reference, I made it to the wrong door and couldn’t find the light switch. It was a terrifying experience, which I soon remedied with a night-light – which served as a point of reference in the dark. When you cannot see it’s often difficult to relate. You can easily feel isolated and alone.

In Epiphany we discover that it is in the midst of darkness that light shines.

Isaiah chapter 60 records the prophet’s words, “For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples” (vs. 2a). This is a picture of hopelessness and abandonment. It describes the condition of the people of Israel as they were taken into exile by Babylon. But soon there will be hope.

“Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you” (Isaiah 60:1). It is God’s doing and action, which brings light to total darkness. The dark days of exile in Babylon will be left behind. Then the purpose of God’s people will be fulfilled. All peoples will be drawn to them through the light of God. The prophet declares, “Nations shall come to your light” (Isaiah 60:3a).

Epiphany is the season of the church year when we celebrate the light that drew the Magi or Wiseman to the Christ Child. In the Christian story, people from other nations would come to see the light of the newborn child who comes to save.

As we in the northern hemisphere live in a time of darkness with short winter days, we are reminded that light is what gives us hope, too. We seek the light, both spiritually and physically. We have learned that without the light we literally become sad, even hopeless. But with light we grow strong and more hopeful.

The light of God’s grace comes to us and we are reminded again that we cannot live without it. Just as Israel was renewed by God’s light, so there is renewal for us by God’s light that comes to touch our lives.

Seek the light! It is essential for our life and salvation. Indeed, without the light from God’s creation we would not exist.

May you drawn to the light of Christ this year, and equally may you reflect that light to a world in need. Blessings as we begin another year together.

Pastor James
A Note from Pastor Anna on Making a Plan

Who loves a plan? I know I do. I love to look at the year ahead and think: furloughs in January, February, July, and September. Synod Youth gathering in May. Seniors events of movie, muttart, legislature, and awesome Lent project. Summer with you pick hymns, a focus on the Psalms. Pastor James on Sabbatical, likely, May and June. Having some idea what is going to come in the next year is comforting. It allows me to make a plan for how I think things will go.

But then I’m reminded of: the best laid plans of mice and men. Or “if you want to make God laugh, tell God your plans.” Because no matter what plans I make, somehow God has a way of changing things up, and working in unexpected ways to bring about unexpected ends. I saw this picture, and I reminded me that no matter what plans I make, things will happen in my life, and in the lives of the people I care about, and all we can do is support one another regardless of what comes.

As we enter another new year I know this is a time where many of us, once again, make plans or reevaluate our existing plans. We want to see what is coming for us in the future. We want to try and prepare for our lives, as best we can with the information we have. And this is important. For while we may not know God’s plan for our lives, we do know some of the events in our coming year which are meaningful for us. Most of us are people who need plans, we need an ideal or a goal or plan to help us decide what to do and when to do it.

So here is my thought for January: lets plan, but know that God’s Spirit will enter into the world and our lives and disrupt our plans. And we can know that both planned and unexpected events have God’s hand in them. May 2019 bring you all the things you are looking forward to, but also bring you God’s presence and disruptions to help us see God at work in our midst.

Pastor Anna

Welcome to the New Year and here are some of the awesome upcoming opportunities for Hosanna’s Seniors:

On Tuesday January 15 all Hosanna Seniors, inviting anyone who is 55 or better, are invited to out for Popcorn and a Movie. Join us to watch, The Greatest Showman, a musical in the style of MGM, inspired by the life of P.T. Barnum, the creator of “the greatest show on earth” – the circus. Come out for an afternoon of great music, wonderful dancing, and finding a place where you belong.

February 19, 2pm, will find Hosanna’s seniors gathering at the Muttart Conservatory for a hour long tour and then free time for exploring. Come out to see what is growing in Edmonton and around the world. Please dress in layers and bring a sweater, as some of the pyramids are cool.

There is a $10 fee to participate in this event, and funds can be given to Pastor Anna to help offset the cost of the entry and tour. A signup sheet will appear on the black counter in January if you are interested in participating in this event.

On Tuesday March 19 Seniors will be participating in a tour of the Alberta Legislature. The event will begin with a brief film on Alberta’s history and includes a walking tour of the Legislature. More information will follow in future newsletters. Keep your eyes on this section to get more information.

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

THANK YOU, MUSICIANS!

To the many who joined to make the advent and Christmas worship more meaningful I write a thank you. Extra time was invested by many as we added in hand bell and flute trio rehearsals as well as an extra choir rehearsal to run Brother Heinrich’s Christmas for 2 of the 3 Christmas Eve rehearsals. I appreciate the extra investment put in especially by Dan Fessenden, Doug Jahns, Timothy Veugelers and Kari Heise. While I specifically cite only a few, there were many in the choir and hand bells who invested time and energy. For the faithful service to our church family of many we appreciate you all!

Blessings in the New Year!

Marg Daly
Director of Music
CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND FAMILY MINISTRIES

EDUCATION AND FAMILY MINISTRY

Happy New Year! And Happy Epiphany! The season of Epiphany begins right after Epiphany Day on January 6 and goes until Shrove Tuesday, the last day before Lent begins, which this year is on March 5. During the first part of the season of Epiphany (until January 20) the Narrative Lectionary lessons reflect on God’s promise of Jesus.

“Throughout the Old Testament, God has promised a savior. Now that the time has come, God’s promises continue to be revealed through Jesus’ birth. The shepherds discover that the promise of a savior is meant for everyone, including them. Even wise men from far away are brought into God’s plan of redemption for the world as they follow a star to meet the baby Jesus. Jesus is the fulfillment of God’s promise that through Abraham’s descendants, all the world will be blessed, showing that God keeps promises through dozens of generations. God continues to protect Jesus and his family as more recognize who he is. John reminds people of the promise of Jesus, preparing the way, as Jesus’ identity becomes even more clear in baptism. (from Living the Word: Teaching God’s Story curriculum by Spirit and Truth Publishing)

SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Sunday School, youth and choir joined together for “I Wonder…”, a very special cross-generational worship experience on the third Sunday of Advent. Many thanks to all who participated and a special thanks to all who helped make this a memorable worship time.

ADULT FORUMS

Adult forums usually take place on most first and third Sundays of the month at 10:10 in the Social Room.

THURSDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

Thursday Morning Bible Study resumes January 10th. This group meets weekly at 10:00am to gain some insight into the lessons for the upcoming Sunday. Come any Thursday that you are able – we love to welcome new faces in this group. Coffee’s always on and laughs are guaranteed!

UPPITY WOMEN OF THE BIBLE: SONG OF SONGS

3 Friday evenings – January 11, January 25 and February 8 at 7:00 in the Social Room.

This exciting Bible study for everyone returns on January 11 at 7 pm in the Social Room. The study features Bible studies about amazing women in the Bible. This year we are focusing on the Song of Songs. Rev. Dr. Lisa Wolfe is the leader of the video series. She is not only a great theologian but has a wonderful sense of humor. This series looks at the mysterious, beautiful and alluring writings in the Song of Songs. She will help us explore questions like Who wrote it? What sort of people are the main characters? And is it based on history, mythology or both?

Join us in a great discussion and good fellowship. Bring your Bible and if you have Christmas goodies left that you don't want to eat alone – bring them along to share.

WOMEN’S BIBLE STUDY

The women’s study group will join the rest of the congregation for the Uppity Women of the Bible: Song of Songs study. We’ll take a break from our study of Paul’s key teachings and return to that study in March.

VBS 2019

January seems early to be thinking about Vacation Bible School but now is the time to start planning for the week of July 7-11. We need to choose a theme/curriculum and start to think about how to present Bible stories to the kids of Hosanna and our community in fun and creative ways. Talk to Sonja for more information or to let her know you are willing to help!

LOOSE OFFERING SUNDAY FOR INNER CITY PASTORAL MINISTRY: FEBRUARY 3rd, 2019

Our congregation has served with the Inner City Pastoral Ministry (ICPM) for many years, providing volunteers and food for the Sunday lunch program at the Bissell Centre in the inner city. This has been a rewarding experience for our volunteers, as they have the opportunity to worship with and serve the community on those Sundays. For the 6th successive year at Hosanna we will be showing our support for the important ministry of ICPM by designating to ICPM the loose offering given at worship on Sunday, February 3rd, 2019, which is the Sunday when our volunteers will be at the Centre serving the lunch meal. Our usual loose offering on any given Sunday is not a large amount. We are therefore inviting all members who would normally give their offering by envelope or by PAR to bring a loonie or two, or a $5.00 of $10.00 bill (or larger!) or whatever you feel blessed to be able to give, and to put it in the offering plate on February 3rd. This will provide all of us that stay behind on that Sunday with an opportunity to be just as much a part of the ICPM ministry as those who are serving directly at the Bissell Centre. Please note that Church Council has given this initiative its approval.

Thank you for your support.

John Campbell,
Board Chair, ICPM
Dear Beloved of God –

“In the time of King Herod...,” that’s how the story begins.

“He built monumental structures including the Second Jewish Temple, the mountaintop palace at Masada and the palatial Herodium complex whose desert palace included a grand residence, a theater and large pools, baths and gardens. When his position was seemingly threatened, he did not hesitate for a second but had his wife killed and at least two of his sons.

“In the time of King Herod....” He dominates the story. Of the twelve verses of the Epiphany Gospel, Matthew 2:1-12, he controls the action in ten of them. He rules a world dominated by his authority, his power, his ruthlessness.

King Herod so rules over the world, over this story, that it would be easy to miss the good news of the birth of an infant for it is almost buried, almost hidden, almost veiled in the reality dominated by Herod.

It is no wonder then that he, and all Jerusalem with him, are stunned by the arrival of wise men from the East who come to Jerusalem wishing to pay tribute to a “child who has been born king of the Jews.” It frightens him, and all Jerusalem and he moves quickly to control, to assess, to dominate calling the religious leaders together and then secretly meeting the wise men.

And later we will learn that Herod had been fooled by these wise foreigners – fooled but not beaten. He fights back as cruelty does and has all the infants slaughtered.

“In the time of King Herod....”

This is not an easy, gentle story – but the gospel writer, Matthew’s witness, does not shy away from recognizing that the good news of Jesus – of the birth of the Christ-child, “the king of the Jews” is surrounded by, it is immersed in, harsh reality. And that beneath this reality as defined by Herod – almost hidden, almost veiled – is the truth.

Foreigners arrive in Jerusalem with wealth to place at the crib of a Jewish baby. And, in this act of homage, they become the first to see what God is up to in the birth of this infant. An epiphany which means something like manifestation, or unveiling, or revealing the truth. That the steadfast love of God is met in the flesh and blood of Jesus, born of Mary and that it is veiled, revealed in weakness, hidden in poverty, seen in helplessness.
The gospel writer’s witness invites us to see that the epiphany is not obvious. Rather, it is fragile, tenuous, dreamlike, as vulnerable as an unnoticed baby in a god-forsaken little village, witnessed to by foreigners, in a land ruled by Herod.

And this is where we find ourselves. For if we are to be a people who seek to be disciples of Jesus Christ, “in the time of King Herod,” then we are invited to see God at work in the hidden, veiled, fragile, tenuous, vulnerable, weak, poor; in people and places and events one would hardly notice at all.

For what child is this whose epiphany is so quiet, so unobtrusive, little more than a whisper and yet this one is known, is revealed in the sharing of a little piece of bread and a sip of wine?

For what child is this whose epiphany is so fragile, so veiled, in a village fifteen kilometers from the center of power in Jerusalem and yet this one is baptized, and we are ourselves, baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, are named and claimed children of God?

For what child is this whose birth in a manger is witnessed hardly at all, and who is killed on a cross embracing the whole world. A story from start to finish surrounded by loss and grief and yet a story that ends in surprising, new life?

“In the time of King Herod….” And soon this family will be running to Egypt.

God give us eyes, new eyes, to see You at work among us. And then nurtured in the water and the Word of our baptism, nourished in the communion meal, and upheld in community move us to action for the fragile, tenuous, vulnerable, weak, poor.

In Christ Jesus –
Shalom,
+Bishop Larry Kochendorfer

“The God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.” (Romans 15:13)

Each task takes about two hours (e.g. preparation, serving, clean up), and the work is always so much easier when there are enough helpers to share the load. If there are any questions about this service or to volunteer, please contact the church office or speak to one of the current crew captains: Johanna Borle and Karen Moore.
You can stay current on what’s happening at Hosanna each Sunday by subscribing to the e-bulletin Hosanna Happenings that goes out each Thursday, along with a listing of the volunteers serving in the worship services on the coming Sunday. If you would like to join the distribution list, please contact Lena at office@hosannalutheran.ab.ca.
