

Rolan was born and raised in Camden, NJ. At the age of fifteen he was made aware of the fact that he was a sinner and would go to hell if his life was not drastically changed. He tried reading the Bible but did not understand it and was terrified whenever he read something that referred to judgment; after a while he gave up and just tried to find some comfort in this life. Though he plunged himself into sin, the thought of death and eternal punishment was never out of his mind. In 1971, Rolan left home and joined the Air Force, after Basic Training and Tech School he was stationed at Luke Air Force Base. It was there, in October 1972, that Rolan was befriended by a Christian man who began to tell him about Jesus. God used those conversations to draw Rolan to Himself and immediately deliver him from the sin he was entrenched in. Through the Lord's mercy and grace, Rolan received an understanding of the scriptures that once terrified him along with the peace and comfort that only knowing God can bring.

Rolan ever seeks to know his Savior and His Word better while faithfully serving Him! He is passionate about the truth of Scripture and would like nothing better than to continue to use his God given ability to communicate those truths by exercising this gift through the preaching of His Word. Rolan previously served as an elder for Grace Covenant Church. He has been involved in lay preaching for the past twenty years; most recently in assisting Sovereign Grace Bible Church, Flagstaff, AZ.

Rolan works for Honeywell Technical Solutions as a Material Coordinator. Married to Nazira since 1987 they have 6 children, Elisheba, Josiah, Nathan, Bethany, Charity and Isaiah. The Carter's reside in Mesa, AZ.
