

THE VOICE OF IMMANUEL

April 2018

Good Friday/Easter is the great transforming event, not just in Christian history, but in all of human history. His live-giving sacrifice can change you. His love is not reserved for the perfect (none of us are), nor for those who are working hard and making progress (which is always tenuous). A bruised reed he will not break, and a faintly burning wick he will not quench. (Isaiah 42:3) He sustains with a word him who is weary. (Isaiah 50:4b) Good Friday/Easter is the fulfillment of God's Love.

The Touch of the Master's Hand Anonymous

'Twas battered and scarred, and the auctioneer
Thought it scarcely worth his while
To waste much time on the old violin,
But he held it up with a smile;
"What am I bidden, good folks," he cried
"Who'll start the bidding for me?"
"A dollar, a dollar, now two, only two
Two dollars, and who'll make it three?"

"Three dollars once, three dollars twice
Going for three." But no --
From the room far back, a gray haired man
Came forward and picked up the bow.
Then wiping the dust from the old violin
And tightening up all the strings
He played a melody pure and sweet,
As sweet as the angel sings.

The music ceased and the auctioneer
With a voice that was quiet and low
Said, "What am I bid for the old violin?"
And he held it up with the bow.
"A thousand dollars, and who'll make it two?
Two thousand and who'll make it three?
Three thousand once, three thousand twice
And going, and gone." said he.

The people cheered, but some of them cried,
"We do not quiet understand --
What changed its worth?" Swift came the reply,
"The touch of the master's hand."
And many a man with life out of tune,
And battered and torn with sin
Is auctioned cheap to a thoughtless crowd,
Much like the old violin.

A mess of pottage, a life of shame,
A game and he travels on.
He's going once, and going twice,
He's going and almost gone.
But the Master comes and the foolish crowd
Never can quite understand
The worth of a soul and the change that's wrought
By the touch of the Master's hand.

April – Allergies:

Newsletter:

"I am in pain and distress; may your salvation, O God, protect me." Psalm 69:29 NIV

Allergies are unusual, irritating, and potentially dangerous reactions of the immune system to a normally harmless substance. These reactions occur in about one out of every three people. They will attack the respiratory tract, digestive tract, or entire body, but the type and severity of the reaction will depend on the individual's level of sensitivity to the offending substance.

There are three categories of allergic reactions. Mild reactions are localized and include a rash, watery or itchy eyes, and congestion. Moderate reactions can spread beyond the original site of irritation and cause severe itching and difficulty breathing. The worst reaction, anaphylaxis, affects the whole body and is rare but life-threatening. Within minutes severe swelling will make breathing and swallowing difficult, and may include abdominal pain, vomiting, and mental confusion. Persons severely allergic to bees, shellfish, or peanuts should carry a dose of epinephrine to quickly reverse this reaction.

Since allergies can't be cured, it is important to determine and avoid the triggers for allergic reactions. Triggers can be environmental (wind, pollen, poison ivy, pollution), chemical (perfume, smoke, cleaning materials, latex rubber, medications), or foods (shellfish, peanuts, wheat, milk, soy, strawberries, eggs). In addition, do not overlook items from the surroundings like animals, mold, bee stings, or dust.

Whether an allergy is diagnosed through the medical testing of a physician or the detective process of an individual, finding the source of the allergy is like solving a mystery. Be observant to symptoms and the activities leading up to them. Look for connections between a reaction and any changes in diet, environment, or product use. Also consider others and eliminate bringing potential triggers into public venues whenever possible. Through process of elimination, irritants can be discovered and reactions prevented.

We welcome these individuals into our church family and ask members of the congregation to join in special prayers, asking God to bless these individuals and pray for their continued growth in faith, hope and love.

CALL THE PASTORS

You may be sure of this: your pastors as willing to come to the hospital or your home, the jail, the street corner, or anywhere at any hour of the day or night when they are needed. Call them if you need them. Otherwise they will not know of your need until it is too late. Do not trust the grapevine to get the message to them. "Everyone already knows" is seldom true and the messages coming through the grapevine are often incorrect. Call the pastors. It is better that they receive the same message several times than to not know of the need at all.

NEWSLETTER DEADLINE

The newsletter deadline for April will be Monday, April 16, 2018. You may mail or bring your newsworthy items to the church office or email them to flatvillesecretary@wigi.us.

HISTORICAL COMMITTEE

The Historical Committee has recently completed having the church's monthly newsletters and annual reports bound with hard back covers. They are located on the shelves in the historical room. Please feel free to stop by and see these books. The first newsletter was published in 1962 and annual reports go back as far as 1943 which was in a small pamphlet. Some of that pamphlet is shown below and it's interesting to note the size (8 small pages) compared to this year's report which was 28 pages. Sunday bulletins began in the 1940's. They're also bound up through 2013. The next project is to bind the past five years.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Term, 5 weeks. — Enrollment, 55 pupils.

Teachers:

- Bernhard A. Loeschen, Principal; Mrs. E. H. Hinrichs, Emma Cornelius.

A fine program was presented in the Children's Day service by the pupils. A portion of it was repeated for the W. M. F. Rally a few weeks later.

CHURCH WORKER'S COURSE

A course from the Church Worker's series was given by the pastor over a ten-week period from October to December. The course was "Bible Teachings." The following receive Course Credit cards by meeting the requirements of attendance, study, and accomplishment:

- | | |
