CHUCK DECLEENE

Pastor Chuck was raised in a strong Roman Catholic family in Milwaukee, WI. After one year of college, Chuck enlisted in the Air Force and was stationed in Bellevue, Nebraska. It was there that his commanding officer, Doug Comstock, explained the gospel to him for the first time. On June 29, 1970, Chuck accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior in Doug's backyard.

After finishing his Air Force tour of duty, Pastor DeCleene continued his education at Capital Bible Seminary in Lanham, Maryland receiving a Master of Divinity degree. He has served as the pastor of Faith Baptist Church in Carroll, Iowa and was a missionary in Equador from 1993-1998. After teaching for one year at Tennessee Temple in Chattanooga, TN., Chuck joined the faculty at Faith Baptist Bible College in Ankeny, IA where he presently teaches. Chuck was called as the Pastor of Evangelism at Saylorville Baptist Church in August of 2007.

Chuck and his wife Dianne have four children and five grandchildren.

Students from your church attending the retreat:

"Timothy Retreat is a great opportunity to intentionally focus on spiritual growth along with acquiring tools that will be useful for ministry now and in the future. All of our guys benefit from this spiritually enriching opportunity and are challenged to continue making progress in their personal walk with God. From a ministry perspective, not all of them will be called to vocational ministry, however, everyone is called to ministry, to invest in the lives of others. I'm thankful the guys can be challenged to look beyond their personal lives to see all of life as an opportunity to pour truth into others."
