

The transition from mommy, to mom, to MOTHER requires a great deal of trust.

Nicki's story
Trust began before we knew what we were trusting for.

Once we're convinced prayer actually changes things, we make it a necessary and normal part of our day.

Delight yourself in the Lord and He will give you the desires of your heart.
Psalm 37:4

"With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."
Matthew 19:26b

Holly's story Trust was challenged.

In the future, when your children ask you,
"What is the meaning of the stipulations, decrees and laws, the Lord our God has commanded you?" tell them: "We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.
Before our eyes the Lord sent signs and wonders – great and terrible – on Egypt and Pharaoh and his whole household. But he brought us out from there to bring us in and give us the land that he promised on oath to our ancestors. The Lord commanded us to obey all these decrees and to fear the Lord our God, so that we might always prosper and be kept alive, as is the case today."
Deuteronomy 6:20-24

Can God still be trusted?
Learn to trust during struggles.
God is trustworthy.

LORI'S STORY TRUST GOD'S PLAN.

These are the commands, decrees and laws the Lord your God directed me to teach you to observe in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess...
Deuteronomy 6:1

God has a specific promised land for each of our children to possess – a unique purpose and plan for their lives.

It's God's plan, not mine.

What can we do as parents to best prepare our kids for success in the 'land' God's planned for them?

Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.
Deuteronomy 6:5

"Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.'
This is the first and greatest commandment, and the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'
All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commands."
Matthew 22:37b-40
