

NOTHING ORDINARY

What is your view on work? Is it a blessing or is it a curse? Why? How would having the perspective of a steward change your former outlook on work?

How do you (or how could you) live well as an image-bearer of God in your workplace? Share some ideas for how to represent Jesus Christ in all you do.

What are some ways you make things better for people and for our world through the work you do? If you have viewed your job as “just ordinary,” what are some ways you could change your thinking so that you can see your connection to making things better for others?

Share some steps you could take to see life and work more holistically, as sacred and connected, regardless of what type of job you have. Do you struggle to believe that all honest work is sacred? Share your thoughts.

If you could change one thing about your current job or vocational situation, what would it be? Read through the suggested prayer for Friday this week together and share your thoughts about it. How might a prayer like this change your outlook on your work?
