Featured Exhibit: One inch to One Foot Scale Quilts

Elinor Grabske Czarnecki, C.C.D., C.P.D.

National Quilt Designer for Over 30 Years

Elinor Grabske Czarnecki, an author, teacher, new product developer, and craft needlework designer, has been a part of the Wisconsin quilting community since she founded "Wandering Foot Quilt Guild," the first in Wisconsin.

Elinor began quilting in 1974 when she had corduroy fabric leftover from making rompers for her sons. She either machine or hand pieces her quilts, but only hand quilts them. She is most recognized for her hand quilting, her favorite.

Elinor began creating one inch to one foot scale quilts when she began to outfit her beautiful doll house. She is a member of N.A.M.E, the National Association of Miniature Enthusiasts.

When asked what is her greatest joy in quilting, she answered with a smile, "The people! I truly enjoy seeing my students' quilts win awards."

Please welcome Elinor Grabske Czarnecki to The Mane Quilt Show!

Jeremiah's Crossing is a nonprofit - 501(c)(3) therapeutic horseback riding center, located in central Wisconsin, dedicated to providing equine assisted activities lessons that are specially designed for individuals with special needs.

It is a place where crutches, wheel chairs, walkers and canes are left behind and freedom is gained on the back of a horse. Where we often hear, "Look, Mom! I'm flying," and see miracles happen.

DID YOU KNOW?

~ No one pays a fee for lessons at Jeremiah's Crossing.

~ By attending The Mane Quilt Show you are supporting horseback-riding lessons for people with cognitive, physical, emotional, and academic special needs.

The quilt will be displayed in various locations during the spring and summer. The drawing will take place at the Jeremiah's Crossing Family Fun Fest! (Sunday, August 18, 2019).

This is what Jeremiah's Crossing means to me...

Horses - Fun - Outside - Friends that aren't afraid of me.

It is a place where I can sing to my hearts content.

It never matters who you are, where you come from, what you have or don't have - everyone is equal on the horses. Sure I have goals that I need to overcome - fears and anxiety (mom's and dad's), but for me, it's a great way to strengthen my "core," increase my ability to "balance," and helps to increase my "range of motion!"

I am also learning and listening to "others" give direction with an expectation that I'm going to follow through and do!

It is a way for me to be like others. It gives me a sense of belonging, independence, and accomplishment!

I am around people who ACCEPT and WANT me to BE THERE!

This wonderful "activity" is designed just for me! I am ok just the way I am!

Let's have fun ~ Smiles ~ Feel the power...Horse Power!
