The Bread Talk

Study #11 in series: Our Next Chapter with Jesus

Act I: Physical Bread

(John 6:11) Jesus then took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed to those who were seated as much as they wanted.

Act II: From Physical to Spiritual Bread

(John 6:31-33) "Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written: 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"

Jesus said to them, "Very truly I tell you, it is not Moses who has given you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is the bread that comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

Act III: Spiritual Bread

(John 6:35) Then Jesus declared, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."

IV. Recipe for Healthy Eating

1. _____

(Proverbs 8:17, KJV) I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.

(Mark 1:35) Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house and went off to a solitary place, where he prayed.

2. _____

(Exodus 16:15-16) When the Israelites saw it, they said to each other, "What is it?" For they did not know what it was.

Moses said to them, "It is the bread the Lord has given you to eat. This is what the Lord has commanded: 'Everyone is to gather as much as they need.'"

3. _____

(Exodus 16:19-20) Then Moses said to them, "No one is to keep any of it until morning."

However, some of them paid no attention to Moses; they kept part of it until morning, but it was full of maggots and began to smell. So Moses was angry with them.

Worship Notes:

Participants: Dr. Karl Haffner, our senior pastor, presents today's sermon from Luke 23. Dan Stevens, our pastor for administration, hosts today's worship and presents the Children's Story. Patti Middleton, who joined this church in 1974, reads today's Scripture Lesson. Zachary Juniper, who grew up in this church presents the Prayers of the People. Jerry Taylor is our minister of worship and music and the organist for today's service.

Simon Willsey, son of Jeff and Melanie Willsey, is being baptized today by Pastor Elliot Smith. Simon is a fifth-grader at Spring Valley Academy. Sharing in the joy are his grandparents, Tim & Susan Willsey, and little brother, Sam.

Steve Martin is today's music guest. He has taught at North Shore Adventist Academy in Chicago, Illinois since 1983 where he is currently the band director, physical education teacher, and vice-principal. An accomplished musician, he is also an award-winning teacher, having received the Zapara Excellence in Teaching Award in 1992. Steve is also a recording artist who has performed on eighteen different instruments on six CDs. Steve has also performed on nine of the Voice of Prophecy Family Reunion videos. Steve enjoys spending time with family and creating music on his computer. He is an avid sports fan with "aces" in two sports: bowling a 300 "perfect game" and a "hole-in-one" golf shot. Steve's CD recordings will be available at tomorrow's Celtic Celebration Concert by the Praise Orchestra.

About the Music: As we gather for worship we hear 4 hymns that were arranged by Steve Martin. Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise is a setting of Hymn No. 21. The tune, St. Denio, is a Welsh melody from about 1840. O Sacred Head Now Wounded, also known as the Passion Chorale, was composed by Hans Leo Hassler in 1601. Today's arrangement of this hymn by Steve Martin is based upon Hymn No. 156. How Excellent is Thy Name is one of the older contemporary Christian hymns and Londonderry Air is a setting of Hymn No. 255 by James Swearingen .

Call to Worship was written by Nancy C. Townley for "Ministry Matters" and is based upon today's scripture, John 6.

Be Thou My Vision is a setting of Hymn No. 547 and is a translation by Mary Elizabeth Byrne of an 8th-century Irish poem. It is sung to the Irish folk tune, Slane, which is named after a hill near Tara in County Meath, Ireland.

Highland Cathedral is a popular melody for bagpipes that is often used for weddings. This melody was composed by German musicians, Ulrich Roever and Michael Korb in 1982 for Highland games held in Germany.

It Is Well With My Soul is a hymn of praise and peace written by Horatio Spafford, a Chicago business man, when he heard his wife and children were killed in a shipwreck. The tune, Ville du Havre, is named after the ship and is composed by Philip Bliss. This piece is based upon Hymn No. 530.

Lift Up The Trumpet is based upon Hymn No. 213 written by Jessie Strout and is a uniquely Seventh-day Adventist hymn set to the tune, Coming Again, composed by George E Lee. The hymn has been used since 1937 as the theme song for the "Voice of Prophecy" radio broadcast. Our member, Lonnie Melasheko, was a Voice of Prophecy speaker following H.M.S. Richards Jr..

Our Church History in 1974

This year we are celebrating our church's 50th anniversary. Each week this page will continue to honor the events and people in our past history. Our focus this week is on 1974.

In the United States, 1974 was taken up mainly with Watergate trials. To avoid impeachment, Richard Nixon resigns in August and Gerald Ford becomes the 38th President of the United States. Expo '74 opens in Spokane, Washington, Pioneer 11 passes Jupiter and sends back spectacular shots of the Great Red Spot.

This congregation celebrated its 10th birthday in 1974. Don Bostian was in his third year as senior pastor and Rick Trott was the associate pastor until March. In May, Terry and Arby Carlisle came to take his place. Interesting to note is the fact that Terry took Clinical Pastoral Education that fall under Darryl Nicola along with a future pastor of the church, Dan Stevens. In October, Walt and Carol Sherman arrive from Philadelphia to join the staff as another associate pastor for the growing congregation of 875. Carl Cotter was hired as the full-time custodian.

1974 was a year of firsts for the church. The first pictorial directory in production over the previous year was finally distributed in April. The congregation was asked to pay $1 to defray expenses. That same month saw General Conference President Robert Pierson preach in our worship service. In May, the first newsletter was edited by Richard Barnett, who worked in the hospital communication department. Being a congregation made up of mainly young professionals, the church family enjoyed lots of social and recreational activities: bicycle ride to Clifton Gorge, canoe trip in Indiana, bus tour of New England foliage in October, Fall Festival and Thanksgiving Dinner together.

The year saw a number of the church "kids" getting married in the church: Greg and Peggy Doyle on March 3, Dan and Bev Cobb on June 7 just before they moved to Loma Linda, California to attend dental school. Curt Carr, Jr. (who had been the church's choir director for much of the first 10 years) married Marilyn Kiesz on June 30 before moving to Union College in Lincoln, Nebraska. Other weddings include Brian and Candy Christenson on August 25, James and Donna Hedrick on September 8, and Ed and Dorilee Neufeld on December 26.

In the Music Department, David Hegarty was the organist and headed the church's overall music program. The church's choir director, Stan Applegate rehearsed the choir at 8 a.m. on Sabbath mornings. Roger McNeily directed the hospital chorale which sang at our worship service once a month and toured regularly each month. Jerry Shoemaker was the choir director at the Far Hills Church and they would sing here a couple of times each season. One member observed that at one time the church choir had been a really unique and important part of this church but by 1974 there were not enough singers to staff each choir. This was the first year that Handel's "Messiah" was not sung in December. In the fall, Rosedale Chorale, the Mennonite choir under the direction of Lloyd Kauffman, sang for the first time in our church, and started a tradition that would last for the next 20 years.

At Spring Valley Academy, Adelphia Hill was the music teacher and was followed in the fall by Michael Dunlop, who had been the star vocal major at Walla Walla College. Donald Bassett, a former member of John Phillip Sousa's band, and at one time director of the Spring Valley Academy Band, gave his complete music files to the school. The collection contained 2,000 complete band pieces and some original scores by John Phillip Sousa. This gift was valued at many thousands of dollars; some of the scores, are priceless! It's also fun to note that on February 9, Spring Valley Academy got the same telephone number they have today. That summer saw the installation of carpet over the bare cement floors, paid for by the Home and School Association.

The year closed with a business meeting where the congregation voted to start on Phase 2 of the church construction with the Sabbath School wrap-around rooms, the Fellowship Hall, kitchen and church offices to be added to the sanctuary. The budget cost was $600,000 and would extend the loan for building SVA an additional 3 years (until 1979).

Information for this information was gleaned from letters written to the congregation by Pastor Bostian, conversations with many members of our congregation and from announcements in the 1974 church bulletins. Your memories, of past church events and history, are most appreciated and welcome!

Parking Attendants and Team Captains Needed!

— The Good Neighbor House rents out a large portion of their parking lot for the Dayton Dragon's games and in the past has contracted with a parking company to manage the parking. The management company took 30% of the proceeds and often did not do an adequate job of filling the lot. The result has been falling revenues from the rental activity. This year a new "in-house" fund-raising team is being assembled to take over the parking for the games. There are 70 home games scheduled for 2014 and we need volunteers to manage parking at GNH on game nights. We hope to staff each game with four volunteers for two hours each evening or afternoon game. We are also in need of individuals willing to serve as team captains. If you or your family or organization are willing to serve, please contact Pastor Dave Hutman @ davehutman@gmail.com or call 937-232-2206 cell or Marcia Ehlers at GNH at 224-3003 Ext: 108. There will be an organizational meeting called in the near future to orient and train volunteers and assign games. We need your smiling face and servant's heart! Thanks for considering being a helping hand!
