Thoughts on Scripture:

"I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes so that it will be even more fruitful. You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. Remain in me, and I will remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me." John 15:1-4 NIV

See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God!

Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been made known.
But we know that when Christ appears, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is.

Worship Notes:

Participants: Krystal Morris, who is working here on the summer taskforce team presents today's sermon.

Zachary Juniper, who grew up in this church and is between jobs, hosts today's worship.

Dave Evans, an elder and Manager of the Leadership Institute at Kettering Health Network presents the prayers of the people.

Jill Evans is an English professor at Kettering College and has participated in drama presentations here at the church for many years. Dave and Jill are married and joined this congregation in 1988.

Grant Wareham, a high school graduate and organ student of Jerry Taylor, is the organist for today's service.

As we gather for worship we hear the music of César Franck (1822-1890) who is considered the father of modern organists. The Cantabile (which means "to sing") is from a set of Three Pieces which Franck composed to be played on the new organ at the Trocodero, which was a community auditorium across the river from the Eifel Tower.

Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee (hymn 12) a hymn by Henry van Dyke, an American pastor in the late 1800's using Beethoven's famous tune Ode To Joy from his "Ninth Symphony"

Before The Throne of Grace, composed by Scott Krippayne and Tony Wood in 2007 and recorded by the contemporary Christian group, Point of Grace.

Behold What Manner of Love, a scriptural song based upon 1 John 3:1-2 written in 1978 by Patricia Van Tine.

Toccata Festiva, one of the fun organ pieces was composed by Percy Fletcher in 1915. The Festival Toccata was dedicated to Edwin Lamare and was first recorded by Jonathan Bielby of Wakefield Cathedral.

Our Church History in 1988

Kettering was a great place to be during 1988, with Peter Bath as senior pastor, Dan Stevens, associate for young adults/education, Greg Taylor, youth, Don Miller for Miamisburg Church, Jerry Taylor for music, Val Schober as office manager, Margaret Powell as custodian, Joan Van Arsdell as secretary and Jebba Moses as a pastoral assistant. Wayne McCoy pastor of Fairmont Presbyterian Church did a pulpit exchange with Peter Bath and the choirs from both churches sang at Kettering on Saturday and Fairmont on Sunday. It was so successful that we did another concert together in March with an orchestra.

We started Family Night on Wednesday evenings because the Vacation Bible School program the previous summer was so successful. Classes began in January and changed every quarter. Topics included a baptismal class; babysitting certification; scuba diving certification; vegetarian cooking; Revelation Seminar; taxes and finance; parenting; signing (for the deaf); coping with stress; gardening; golfing; making Christianity real; biking; baking; buying/selling houses; lifestyle evangelism; sailing; family finance; Daniel seminar; highlights of Dayton and prayer.

Family Week (also known as Vacation Bible School) during the summer, was led by a team included Dan Stevens, Peter Bath, Nancy Grillot, Martha Jean Hoehn. The theme for Family Week was "Happy in Jesus". The adult classes in aerobics; lifestyle management; wardrobe color choices; vegetarian cooking and Bible Study were all filled. Later in the summer, for the second year in a row, our church was the site for substance abuse training for the Kettering City School District. In October a Drug Abuse weekend was held featuring Winton Beaven who preached on health. There were seminars for youth and parents teaching the practice of "Just Say No."

Greg Taylor and the youth were having a great year also. The first Youth Rally was organised in March as a joint effort with students from Spring Valley, Mt. Vernon and the public schools. The youth also formed a ski club. Sabbath School and Church was held at the Sicklers. A Youth Sabbath was held where the entire worship service was conducted by the youth which included the organist and preaching of the sermon. Spring Valley Academy Alumni awarded its first scholarship forming a worthy-student fund. Doug Herdman, who had been Pathfinder leader for many years retired and was succeeded by Walt Larson. During Herdman's years the club grew from 60 to 98 members.

This year inspired interest in missions. A trip to Dominican Republic by several church members. Horace and Rosayle Kelley were serving in Mexico, Bill and Karen Seasley were in Malawi, Paul and Elda May Reichard were in Hong Kong and Wendi Agard was in Scotland.

Finances were also addressed this year. After the Fellowship hall colored glass windows were paid for, the church in a business meeting started fund raising for "Building Community". The church accepted a proposal by George Nelson to install a new air conditioner, repair the roof, and replace the pews (because the rubber straps were rotting and people were falling through), Sabbath School expansion and a $100,000.00 seed money, for what would become the Good Neighbor House. The total raised was $370,000.00.

The church enjoyed playing together. The annual corn roast in August, the Goden Buckeye Club sponsored a boat trip down the Ohio River and the church did roller skating at the David Road rink.

A church talent show hosted by Peter Bath and Bob Dunn held in the Kettering College gym was a huge success. It seemed like everyone was involved. KYA served refreshments and baked goods. After several solo acts and songs, the choir sang a medley from "Music Man". The youth did a number of "skits" between items. The surprise event of the evening was an appearance by the Sweet Adelines with over 100 women singing their barbershop songs. It was a "wow" event!

There were five weddings this year: Richard and Lonita Fattic; Shannon Brodie and Scott Caviness; Karen Simmons and John Weaver; James Harvey and Eileen Hollister and Nanette Teller and Roger Wright.

The music department continued to grow. The choir reached 40 members. There was a major concert each month. January – CUC Pro Music & Brass with Van Knauss as organist and an organ concert by Kevin Jones sponsored by the Dayton Chapter of the AGO. February – A Gospel Music Festival and Singspiration hosted by Jerry Shoemaker and 6 recording artists singing songs from their albums with autographed copies available after the concert. March – the Rosedale Chorale. April – David Burton Brown, organist, Anne Wilson, organist; Mt. Vernon Academy handbell choir, voice choir and drama team, and the Heralds Quartet. November – Pat White, Marshall & Jenny Cottrell, Ted French and Lyndon Dieter with the church orchestra, premiered Pat's new CD "White Robe".

In November of 1988 the congregation celebrated 25 years with a service and concert organized by Jerry Taylor. The afternoon concert was a choir festival with members from three Dayton area choirs. A very popular organist and recording artist with TELARC, Michael Murray, presented a recital. A record attendance of 1200 people in our sanctuary, were here for the concert. People sat in the aisles, in the choir loft and even hung over the balcony.

Members who joined in 1988 who are still here include: Donee Shull, Diane Knudsen Binder, and Kent Breakie.
