Thoughts on Scripture:

"Then He called the crowd to Him along with His disciples and said: 'If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me and for the gospel will save it. What good is it for a man to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his soul? Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul? If anyone is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when He comes in His Father's glory with the holy angels.'"

Teaching #4 in Series: Parables for the Present Imperfect

I. Building Bigger Barns

(Luke 12:16-21 NIV) <sup>16</sup>And he told them this parable: "The ground of a certain rich man produced a good crop. <sup>17</sup>He thought to himself, 'What shall I do? I have no place to store my crops.'

<sup>18</sup>"Then he said, 'This is what I'll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. <sup>19</sup>And I'll say to myself, "You have plenty of good things laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry.'"

<sup>20</sup>"But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?'

<sup>21</sup>"This is how it will be with anyone who stores up things for himself but is not rich toward God."

Our Church History in 1994

The church staff remained quite constant in 1994. It was the fourth year for Will Eva to be senior pastor. Dan Stevens continued as pastor for children and young adults. Jerry Taylor continued as the minister of music. Hazel Burns was in her second year as pastor for outreach. Gail Price, as the office and facility manager and Vangy Lundstrom, the publishing secretary, provided consistency in the office. As chaplain at KCMA, Dan Solis joined in the weekly staff meetings. The only change was that the vacancy in the position of pastor for youth was finally filled in May by Joe Wamack. He came with his wife Vonnice and children from the Georgia-Cumberland Conference. The church happily welcomed this vivacious and friendly couple.

The year started off with mission service. Pastor Stevens led 2 groups of volunteers to Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic to build a church in the Guaricanos District. A collegiate group from KCMA with Chaplain Solis went in February to start construction and a SVA high school/adult group went in March to finish up the project. Aubrey Kelley served as the construction foreman and laid the commemorative cornerstone that had been brought from Dayton to mark its completion.

February also included the first tour of the building on Patterson Boulevard that would become the Good Neighbor House. It was a building in the rough, and workbees were called every Sunday in March to demolish the unneeded walls and old fixtures. Led by Pastor David Hutman and key volunteers like Paul Reiss, the formation of the new center progressed rapidly in the spring and summer. Some work was donated by construction firms. We all rejoiced at the Grand Opening and Consecration in November. Volunteers had saved $70,000 in construction fees.

There were several new additions around the church. Eugene Cowling made wooden boxes to hold donations for Good Neighbor House (these boxes currently reside in the north coatroom). A telephone prayer chain was started under the leadership of Carolyn Creech. A large chandelier designed by Pastor Stevens was installed in the narthex. It was given as a memorial gift by Tom Smallwood in honor of his mother.

In May, the church was visited by approximately 100 women from Church Women United, a national ecumenical movement whose goal is to create a common bond through prayer, advocacy and service. They came to find out more about Adventism. Hazel Burns and other women led out in this informative session and provided a lovely vegetarian meal.

During the summer, the Family Life Committee sponsored a family-friendly Saturday vespers to close out the Sabbath with song, prayer and inspirational readings. The VBS theme that July was "The Earthmaker Mysteries" which followed the days of Creation. Summer also saw changes at Spring Valley Academy: John Wheaton had moved to Forest Lake Academy and J.D. Mutchler came to be the new principal. Neil Richmond came to be the chaplain after Brennon Francois left.

On the last weekend in July, the church welcomed a convention of artists from around the world who play the Viola de Amore. One of the 25 performers was our own Ken Christman.

At the Kettering "Holiday at Home" parade in September, the Kettering Hospital float, "Step Safely into the Sunshine" won the highest award. It was built by Paul Reiss and decorated by John Shultz.

In the fall, we experimented with signing for the deaf and hearing-impaired. It was captivating to watch but didn't continue. A new magazine, Creation Illustrated, featured a collection of bird photos by Bertie Foster in it's September issue. Mike Wood accepted the directorship of Dayton Pathfinder Club. On the first Sabbath afternoon in October, Pastor Stevens led out in a special Communion service; "Going Home" was an experience in 6 parts, starting at the time of trouble and moving forward in time to the Second Coming, traveling among the stars with Jesus and the saints on the clouds, the touchdown on the sea of glass, then welcome into the Holy City, and the banquet table in heaven.

In December the church participated in Project Angel Tree, choosing a child of an incarcerated parent to give presents to that Christmas.

Members who joined us in 1994 that are still with us are Becky Vandiver, Kris Mangan, Christina Gauthier, Paula Waller and Linda Farley.
