Job learned that bad things happen to good people and bad people alike. The question is, will you continue to trust God in the difficult times? Is he worthy of our trust when we don’t know all the answers and our lives are filled with pain?

Learners will:

1. Explain the limits to Satan’s power
2. Identify the advice Job received and his reactions
3. Generalize on God’s sovereignty
4. Point out the traits of trusting in the face of pain
Job

The Books of Poetry

- Job
- Psalms
- Proverbs
- Ecclesiastes
- Song of Songs

Purpose/Theme:
This is the most famous attempt in Western literature to grapple with the question of why good people sometimes suffer. A part of the Old Covenant is that God will bless the faithful. Job agonizes over the apparent exceptions, trying to preserve both the power and the justice of God. The book concludes that ultimately the reason behind much suffering is known only to God.

Key Verse:
"As surely as God lives, who has denied me justice . . . as long as I have life within me, the breath of God in my nostrils, my lips will not speak wickedness, and my tongue will utter no deceit" (27:2-4).

Main People:
Job, his family, his friends (Eliphaz, Bildad, Zophar, Elihu).

Outline:
- The disasters of Job (Job 1,2)
- The friends of Job (Job 3—37)
- Job’s conversation with God (Job 38—42)
- The deliverance of Job (Job 42)

FAITH AND SUFFERING

BOOK OF JOB

BASIC DATA

- Covers a period of only a few weeks or possibly a few months’ time
- Considered to be the first book of the Bible

Key Words (number of times in the KJV):
- Wicked (-ly, -ness) 48
- Right (-ous, -eousness) 32
- Why 16
- Afflict (-ed, -tion) 11

Key Verses

Job 1:9 (NKJV)
9 So Satan answered the LORD and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing?

Job 1:21 (NKJV)
21 And he said: "Naked I came from my mother’s womb, And naked shall I return there. The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away; Blessed be the name of the LORD."

Job 2:3-5 (NKJV)
3 Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and shuns evil? And still he holds fast to his integrity, although you incited Me against him, to destroy him without cause."
4 So Satan answered the LORD and said, "Skin for skin! Yes, all that a man has he will give for his life.
5 But stretch out Your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will surely curse You to Your face!"

Job 13:15 (NKJV)
15 Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him. Even so, I will defend my own ways before Him.
Job 16:1-2 (NKJV)
1 Then Job answered and said:
2 “I have heard many such things; Miserable comforters are you all!

Job 27:2-4 (NKJV)
2 “As God lives, who has taken away my justice, And the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter,
3 As long as my breath is in me, And the breath of God in my nostrils,
4 My lips will not speak wickedness, Nor my tongue utter deceit.

Job 40:6-8 (NKJV)
6 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said:
7 “Now prepare yourself like a man; I will question you, and you shall answer Me:
8 “Would you indeed annul My judgment? Would you condemn Me that you may be justified?

Job 42:1-3 (NKJV)
1 Then Job answered the LORD and said:
2 “I know that You can do everything, And that no purpose of Yours can be withheld from You.
3 You asked, ’Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?’ Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, Things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.

CHRIST SEEN:

Priest, whose patient suffering was inflicted by Satan but purposed by God

God’s example of patience under suffering (James 5:11)
PROLOGUE – Chapters 1 - 2
- Setting of the council drama with God and Satan in heaven
- Challenged to test Job

LIMITS OF SATAN’S POWER – Chapters 1 - 2
- Satan’s Reasoning and Challenges
  - Attacks Job’s character
  - Basic argument: Job is blameless because he is blessed so
- What Satan Cannot Do (see page in booklet)
  - Not opposite of God
  - Cannot do things without God’s permission
- Resisting Satan
  - Submit self to God, and pray for help, and really desire to do the right thing, then Christ will drive him away
  - Biblical directives

THE ADVICE Chapters 4 - 37
- Conventional Wisdom
  - Basic idea that pain and suffering are always due to sin
  - God must submit to my human understanding of cause and effect
- Cycles of Dialogue
  - Long theological debate by three friends and Job’s replies
  - Job must be a sinner since God has removed his physical blessings
  - Eliphaz – own experiences
  - Bildad – tradition is important
  - Zophar – I am right and have full authority
- Dominant Theme
  - The fundamental question – is God worthy of trust
  - Cannot understand why there are evil people

God’s Sovereignty
- We cannot know God completely
- Show the proper relationship between God and man

Trust in the Midst of Pain Chapters 38 - 41

- God Speaks – The Answer
  - God joined the conversation in chapter 38 out of the whirlwind
  - God confronts Job’s prideful questioning

- Suffering and Faith
  - Job’s plight never caused his faith to waver; He knew who his Redeemer was, a living Savior
  - He questions God but does not reject Him
  - Job never turns on God as such but his words reflect a struggling faith

- Learning from the Example
  - How we should react to trials
  - Suffering and righteous can exist together

1. Describe Job’s attitude toward God throughout His suffering. In light of his personal pain, what does this tell you about Job’s relationship with God?

2. Many people think of God and Satan as opposing equals, sort of like the “Force” from the Star Wars movies, which had a powerful good side and a powerful bad side. What in Job shows you the error of this view? What does this book teach you about how Christians should respond to the reality of Satan’s power?

3. What do you think it means to trust God with your circumstances? How did Job show this trust in God? How did God reveal to Job that He (God) was worthy of that trust?

4. Why is pride so dangerous? Give an example of how a person’s pride led to disaster. How does God view pride? Why does He see it that way?

5. How would you summarize the Lord’s answer to Job? What point does God want Job to understand through this series of questions?

APPLICATION

What is one thing you can do this week to develop a greater appreciation for God’s greatness?
FAITH AND SUFFERING

BOOK OF JOB

WHAT SATAN CANNOT DO

- He can do nothing to prevent godly reconciliation in answer to prayer.
- Can’t take us away from God or take our salvation from us (can use oppression of various sorts though).
- He can tempt us to sin but he cannot make us sin; never force us.
- May accuse us but cannot condemn the one who is in Christ because he has no power or say in how the Lord views His people.
- Not opposite of God.
- Approaches God as a subordinate
  - Cannot tempt without God’s permission.
  - Cannot influence nature without God’s permission.
  - Cannot physically harm without God’s permission.
  - Cannot kill without God’s permission.
  - Cannot touch at all without God’s permission.
  - Cannot mention a believer’s name without God’s permission.
  - Cannot force believers to do anything.
  - Cannot read our thoughts.
  - Does not know the future.
  - Does not know what we dreamed.
But what is it we can learn from all this about suffering? What lessons are there for us that may help in our own times of grief?

1. Suffering often comes as the result of an unseen conflict in the spiritual world. One of the most striking and even frustrating things about Job's story is that we know something of his experience which he himself does not know. There is something very real going on about which Job and his friends are completely ignorant. Job really comes to the scene after the opening act. And it is in the opening act we learn what gave rise to the whole incident.

2. The inadequacy of human reasoning in the presence of tragedy and suffering. Again, this lies just on the surface of the story: What is the most obvious explanation for Job's suffering? Why, it is his sin, of course! This was what Job's friends thought, and it is what Job himself thought, although he resented it because it was unfair.

3. God is sovereign and supreme over Satan and our suffering. The book does not explain all the methods of God in His rule over all creation. But did you notice, at the beginning, that Satan had to get permission? Did you notice that he had to report in? That he had to get permission again to do more? Did you notice that prescribed limits were imposed on him?

CONCLUSION

There are, then, reasons for our suffering that we may not know. But there is a God whom we do know, whose rule is unchangeably firm over all circumstances of life, Whose character is unchangeably just, and Whose heart is unchangeably good and loving and gracious. Through Jesus Christ, we know Him. And knowing Him we may trust Him implicitly.

“7 Reasons to Study the Book of Job” by Christopher Ash

1. Understand God for who He is
   Above all, the book of Job will force you to think deeply about God the Father and about Jesus Christ, the Son of God.
2. Grapple with God’s sovereignty
Job will press you to think carefully, with doctrinal thoughtfulness and depth, about how the universe is governed.

3. Reject false gospels

4. Identify with those who suffer
By immersing you in suffering, Job shows you both how to feel something of the sufferings of Christ (in a way that the gospels do not) and how to feel the depths of the sufferings of Christ’s people. This will help you identify with the persecuted church.

5. Find hope in the midst of pain
Job is finally full of hope and comfort, for its message rests in the end on the comprehensive sovereignty of God over all creation, and specifically on how his sovereignty encompasses all the powers of evil.

6. Develop your emotional pallet
Because so much of Job is poetry, a deep immersion in the book will help you develop your emotional and affectional ‘pallet’ (to use a painting metaphor), so that you will learn to feel, to desire, and to grow more sensitive to all manner of experiences in life.

7. Encounter the living God

“Practical Ways to Deal with Pain” by Philip Yancey

1. Learn as much about the cause of the pain as possible
2. Allow God to comfort you
3. Attempt to think about the good God can accomplish in your life through the pain
4. Help others in spite of your pain (I Peter 4:19)

“Five Facts About Faith” by Joseph Tkach

- God loved us even when we were his enemies; he will be faithful in all circumstances.
- The resurrection of Jesus shows that God has the power to save us even from death.
- When we trust God, we obey him, knowing that his commands are for our good.
• No one has perfect faith; we grow in faith through life experiences.
• Doubts and questions can lead us to trust Christ even with the unknown.

“WAYS TO BECOME A BETTER COMFORTER TO THOSE IN PAIN”

1. Don’t talk just for the sake of talking
2. Don’t sermonize by giving pat answers
3. Don’t criticize
4. Put yourself in the other person’s place
5. Offer sincere help and encouragement
1. Study the main points and tell Job’s thoughts about his life, his questions, and the problem of suffering.
   3:1-26
2. Review Eliphaz’s view (main argument), his evidence, warnings, accusations, and direction to Job.
3. List the questions and descriptions of Job’s complaint.
   7:1-21; 13:20-14:2
4. Give an account of Bildad’s counsel and what he concludes concerning God and suffering.
   8:1-20; 18:1-21; 25:1-6
5. List Zophar’s view and reproach to Job and his descriptions of the wicked.
   11:1-16; 20:1-29
6. Name the complaints to God by Job.
   9:21-35; 19:1-29
7. List Job’s thoughts about his friends.
8. Compare Job’s situation (Job 3:1-10) with Jeremiah’s (Jeremiah 20:14-18).
9. What support does Job give for his innocence?
10. Describe the examples Job give of God’s power.
11. Tell what Job wanted from God.
    13:20-28; 16:6-17:9; 23:1-9; 31:35
12. How does Job affirm his faith?
    17:11, 15; 19:23-29; 23:10-17
13. Tell what Job said about the wicked and what should happen to them.
14. List what Job says deserve God’s punishment.
    31:1-40
15. What questions and challenges does God pose to Job?
    38:1-41:34
16. Describe Job’s response to God.
    42:1-6
17. What is the key points God is making with the two great creatures?
