

Dr. Madelyn Dones

Dr. Madelyn Dones was born and raised in Miami, FL. She attended high school at Our Lady of Lourdes Academy, where she graduated at the top of her class. She attended college at the University of Miami, where she was selected for the Dual-Degree Honors Program in Medicine. She graduated with honors as a Phi Beta Kappa. Dr. Dones attended medical school at the University of Miami School of Medicine, graduating in 1997. She completed her pediatric residency training at the University of Miami/Jackson Memorial Hospital, where she graduated as a member of the AOA Medical Honor Society. She was chosen to serve as Pediatric Chief Resident the following year.

Dr. Dones joined Kings Bay Pediatrics in 2001, upon completion of her medical training. She feels privileged to be a part of a prestigious medical practice with such a rich history of providing care to the children of South Florida. Dr. Dones is Board Certified in Pediatrics and is a Fellow of the American Academy of Pediatrics.

Dr. Dones is married with two children. She enjoys boating, reading, and exploring the world with her family. She is a staunch child advocate, particularly for those with disabilities.

