Holy Thursday Service March 29 ~ 7:00 PM

This service recounts the events, which took place in the upper room. Jesus was sharing a meal with his followers. He teaches them about the meaning of servanthood. Our service will include Communion.

Easter Services ~ April 1

7:30 AM ~ Sunrise Service

Patio area between the Sanctuary and Fellowship Hall

10:30 ~ Easter Worship Service

Easter Breakfast

April 1 ~ 8:45 a.m. ~ Fellowship Hall

There will be an informal Easter breakfast at 8:45 a.m., with several egg dishes, muffins, ham and scones offered by our hosts, the Hills and Tittles. If you have questions, contact Karen Hill or Nancy Tittle. For those of you that are able and want to, please bring a dish to share. There is no charge. Come and enjoy good food and fellowship.

Easter Flowers

This year the sanctuary chancel will again be decorated for Easter with a variety of spring blooming plants. Everyone is welcome to purchase plants, in honor, in memory, or in celebration of loved ones for $12 each. Plants will be available for pick up after the 10:30 AM Easter service.

The variety of plants will include flowers of all colors and species. This variety makes an incredible spring display for our Easter service. Order forms will be available in the church bulletin.

Deadline for orders ~ Palm Sunday, March 25, 2018

THE G.A.P.

God's Awesome People

Our next gathering will be held at the home of Don and Barbara Janeway (936 Callahan Lane, Placentia) on March 17, at 6:00 p.m. Don and Barbara will provide a main dish, so please bring a salad, dessert or an appetizer to share. Also, bring your beverage of choice. RSVP to barbara.janeway@yahoo.com, (by March 15) so she can plan accordingly. Come and enjoy good food and fellowship.

Remember this is a fun, every-other-month event. Hope to see you there! It is open to all ages. Be sure to save the future dates listed below:

- May 19 – Bill and Nancy Tittle
- July 21 – Pat and Kevin Gaston
- September 15 – Bob and Jonell Cadman
- November 17 – Jim and Karen Hill

For Lent this year I am focusing on the theme of wholeness. Jonell Cadman has placed a number of spheres on the alter/table as symbols of wholeness. The spheres come in a variety of sizes and configurations. Some of them are rather misshapen. Not really perfectly whole. Kind of like most of us.

On the First Sunday in Lent we read the story of Jesus' temptation and I focused on God's gift of empathy. My big picture understanding was that God's spirit both descended on Jesus at his baptism and forced him into the wilderness. While in the wilderness Jesus was surrounded by wild animals and was tempted by Satan. There with him were the messengers of God (angels) who cared for him. That is the gift of empathy.

I quoted research from a nurse in New Zealand, Theresa Wiseman. Wiseman had studied people in diverse "helping" professions in order to discover common traits. She discovered four. A number of you asked me to repeat these following the sermon, so here they are: 1) Perspective taking. In other words learning to take on someone else's perspective. Walking in someone else's shoes. 2) Staying out of judgment. Rather than judging someone else ("you should have done this instead") empathic people simply choose to be close to the other. 3) Recognizing emotion in other people, and 4) Communicating understanding of that emotion.

When we recognize emotion and communicate some understanding of that emotion we have to be in touch with our own emotions. It is not as if we are saying "I understand completely what you are going through..." We don't. We can't. But we do remember when we were lonely, or afraid, or confused, or whatever. The important message we can communicate to another is "you are not alone... I'm willing to be here with you."

During the remaining Sundays in Lent I'm going to address Connection (how we connect with God in spite of our sin), Focus (how we focus on God in spite of all of the competing distractions around us), Salvation (how we are healed), and Covenant (what does a new relationship with God look like?)

My inspiration for the Lent theme of Wholeness came from the Gospel Lesson assigned for the Fourth Sunday in Lent. It is a familiar passage: God didn't send his Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world might be saved through him. The reason we walk to the cross with Jesus is not so much to see him crucified, but to experience the empty tomb.

I want to remind you that you are welcome to my four-week study of Mark's Gospel on Wednesdays (either 10:30 a.m. or 7 p.m.) in the church library (which is located in the Office Building). The dates are February 21 and 28, and March 7 and 14. The morning and evening sessions are identical so that you can switch back and forth depending on your schedule. Even if you can't make all four, feel free to attend. I've made each session "stand alone".

I love studying the Bible in groups. I enjoy diving deeper into the text with other people. I learn a lot more than I teach in these sessions. I look forward to our being together.

Blessings,

Pastor Doug
