

The Worship of God

June 3, 2018

FOUNDERS DAY

Eleven O'Clock

The worship of God begins with the music of the organ. We encourage you to use this time for meditation and reflection. Please refrain from conversation which would disturb others and turn off or silence all electronic devices. Following the service, greet our visitors and share your friendship with those around you.

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Jerry Baker

Deacon: From the break of day to its close,

People: We would praise you, God of Christ Jesus.

Deacon: In sunlight, or under the heaviest clouds,

People: We would serve you, God of the Good Shepherd.

Deacon: With you we fear neither the day nor the night,

People: For darkness and light are alike to you.

Deacon: In you we place our whole trust, loving God, for our times are in your hand.

People: Let your face shine upon your servants, and satisfy us with your boundless grace.

Deacon: Let everyone celebrate and praise our God!

People: God's name be praised forever!

* THE INVOCATION AND LORD'S PRAYER

CHORAL ADORATION (Hymn 659)

Norman L. Warren

People of earth, give ear! Should you not justice know? Will God your pleading hear, while crime and cruelty grow? Do justice, love mercy, walk humbly with your God. How shall our life fulfill God's law so hard and high? Let Christ endue our will with grace to fortify. Then justly, in mercy, we'll humbly walk with God.

RESPONSIVE PRAYER: "A Prayer for Lakeside"

Deacon: Our kind and gracious Heavenly Father, we beseech your blessings on this, your house. Before the majestic splendor of our "Beth-El" we stand in awe and reverence.

People: The shining steeple, lifting high its cross to the heavens, invites us from afar to enter its doors, to sit quietly in its pews, and to gaze around us upon the utter beauty of its structure.

Deacon: O Lord, though these strong brick walls are no longer new, your Church is as old as time itself. Lakeside has belonged to us for only a few years now, but it has become a part of us . . . and truly we have each become a part of it.

People: For in its presence we have worshiped, have seen Christ lifted up, and have felt his dwelling among us. In its bosom we have confessed our sins and have felt the comfort, serenity, and assurance of your forgiveness.

Deacon: Our Father, we thank you for blessing us with forceful, inspiring messages brought from your pulpit by consecrated individuals, for the stirring anthems rendered by the choirs, for the professions of faith and words of re-dedication faithfully uttered from the lips of our youth.

People: O God, we know you have heard the sacred vows of marriage made at your altar, and the sincere prayers of dedication offered for our babies. We have felt your presence profoundly with us as we affirmed our faith in life everlasting at services for a loved one who has passed on to be with you.

Deacon: We pray, Father, that you will continue your blessings upon this, your Church, and us, your children. Guide and direct us that each time we leave your house of worship we may go forth with renewed strength and courage to fulfill the mission of Lakeside . . . to proclaim the Gospel of Christ by which we alone can be saved from sin and judgment.

People: For it is in your Son's name and for his sake we pray. Amen.

ANTHEM: "O How Amiable"

Ralph Vaughan Williams

O how amiable are thy dwellings: thou Lord of hosts! My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God. Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be always praising thee. The glorious majesty of the Lord our God be upon us: prosper thou the work of our hands upon us. Prosper thou our handiwork. O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.

MEDITATION

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON: Deuteronomy 5:12-15

Minister: This is the word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

THE PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING AND INTERCESSION

* HYMN 717: "Let All Things Now Living" ASH GROVE

* OFFERTORY PRAYER

ORGAN OFFERTORY: Cantilena

Richard Lloyd

* THE DOXOLOGY LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise God all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!

Praise God above ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Alleluia, Alleluia! Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

This morning we give thanks for the family of faith known as Lakeside Baptist Church which seeks to worship and serve Christ in this place. The Acolyte places a print of the "Lehman Benediction" on the altar.

PROCLAMATION

ANTHEM: "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross"

arr. Gilbert Martin

When I survey the wondrous cross On which the Prince of glory died, my richest gain I count but loss, and pour contempt on all my pride. Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, save in the death of Christ my God! All the vain things that charm me most, I sacrifice them to his blood. See from his head, his hands, his feet, sorrow and love flow mingled down! Did e'er such love and sorrow meet, or thorns compose so rich a crown? Were the whole realm of nature mine, that were a present far too small; love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all! Amen! Isaac Watts

THE GOSPEL LESSON: Mark 2:23-3:6

SERMON: "Are They Still Watching?"

Dr. Wright

AN AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Lakeside Baptist Church confesses Jesus Christ as Lord, on the basis of who he was and is, and what he did and does. Who is he? We confess him to be God's unique son, the Messiah of Israel, the Lord of Life. What did he do? He gave his life even unto death – by God's will and for our sake – on the cross. He comes again and again by the Holy Spirit to communicate himself to his people. His people are the Church.

We seek simply to be one visible congregation of Christ's church. We hold particular views about the Christian faith, but we also rejoice in our Lord's gracious gifts to our fellow believers who may see God in other ways. Happily, we count them as our brothers and our sisters.

We live out our faith by taking seriously our commitment to each other and to the world as we generously share our words, our money, our time, and our talents with all God's people.

THE CALL TO CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP

- * RECESSIONAL HYMN 272: “The Church’s One Foundation” AURELIA
(Persons desiring membership in our church are invited to come forward during the singing of this hymn.)

THE BENEDICTION

CHORAL RESPONSE: “The Lord Bless You and Keep You” John Rutter

The Lord bless you and keep you: the Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. The Lord lift up the light of his countenance upon you, and give you peace. Amen.

- * ORGAN POSTLUDE: Prelude in e "Cathedral" J.S. Bach
* Congregation stands.

The flowers on the altar are given to the glory of God and in memory and honor of our Charter Members.

WE WELCOME OUR GUESTS

We welcome our guests and would like for you to know more about Lakeside Church and its ministry. Members of Lakeside are persons on a journey of faith. Our church seeks to be a worshipping and serving community where the gospel of Jesus Christ is modeled and proclaimed.

Our church is Baptist by tradition and heritage, but in our worship and practice we seek to move beyond the label of a denomination to incorporate the richness of other Christian traditions. In our community service we support many ecumenical ministries that convey God’s love beyond the lines of any denomination.

We receive members by affirmation of their faith or by transfer from other Christian churches. We honor the previous baptism of persons coming to Lakeside from other Christian denominations. If you are interested in knowing more about our church and its ministries, please fill out a guest card or speak to one of the ministers or members.
