* CALL TO WORSHIP

Minister: As our Advent pilgrimage begins, we look for a miracle that will prove God's love.

People: We hope for a miracle that will bring wholeness to the ones we love.

Minister: We pray for a miracle that will bring peace to the world.

People: We cry out for a miracle that will bring salvation to all people.

Minister: Then we realize that Christ's coming is more than a miracle. It is love.

People: Love for the unexpected challenges in our lives,

Minister: Love for the vulnerable ones in our midst.

People: Love for the presence of God in all creation.

All: God, grant us the courage to receive and share your love.

PROCLAMATION

ANTHEM: "Creation Will Be at Peace"

Anna Laura Page

In the holy mountain of the Lord all war and strife will cease; in the holy mountain of the Lord creation will be at peace. The wolf will lie down with the lamb, the cow and bear will feed, their young will play together; a little child will lead. The leopard and goat will graze, the lion will feed on straw. They will war no more; a child will lead them all.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON: Isaiah 11:1-10

SERMON: "From Foes to Friends"

Dr. Wright

AN AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We believe that when angry words inflict bruised feelings,

When broken promises result in broken hearts,

And when pride blocks reconciliation,

Love comes home at Christmas.

We believe that when poor choices yield unpleasant results,

When failure and defeat shadow our every move,

And when the future appears bleak and unkind,

Hope comes home at Christmas.

We believe that when sorrow absorbs all of the happiness from life,

When living is a chore with no pleasant reward,

And when laughter is a gift we have all but forgotten,

Joy comes home at Christmas.

We believe that when discord becomes the melody of our days,

When anxiety stalks us, stealing our sleep at night,

And when war is the pattern of all human interaction,

Peace comes home at Christmas.

We believe that when we no longer know who we are,

When we do not feel at home in familiar places,

And when our spirits cry out to God for help,

Christ comes home at Christmas. Thanks be to God! Amen!

The season of Advent is a time of preparation when we celebrate the coming of Christ as a babe many years ago and anticipate his return sometime in our future. The theme of our Advent worship this year is "Perfect Peace in an Imperfect World." We consider the different ways in which the Light of Christ's coming brings us hope, love, joy, and peace. The paraments on the pulpit and lectern, along with the ministers' stoles, provide us with visual cues about the meaning of our faith. The color of the season is purple, used to indicate royalty and suffering alike, a reminder of Christ's kingship and the suffering he endured for us all. The symbol is comprised of the two Greek letters, chi and rho, the first two letters in the Greek word Christos, meaning Christ. The Acolyte brings light to the altar as a reminder of Christ, the Light of life, and leads us out of the sanctuary as a reminder that we are to take this light to the world. In the same way, we begin and end our worship following the cross as a symbol of God's self-giving love for us all.

WE WELCOME OUR GUESTS

We welcome our guests and would like for you to know more about Lakeside Church and its ministry. Members of Lakeside are persons on a journey of faith. Our church seeks to be a worshiping and serving community where the gospel of Jesus Christ is modeled and proclaimed.

Our church is Baptist by tradition and heritage, but in our worship and practice we seek to move beyond the label of a denomination to incorporate the richness of other Christian traditions. In our community service we support many ecumenical ministries that convey God's love beyond the lines of any denomination.

We receive members by affirmation of their faith or by transfer from other Christian churches. We honor the previous baptism of persons coming to Lakeside from other Christian denominations. If you are interested in knowing more about our church and its ministries, please fill out a guest card or speak to one of the ministers or members.
