REMEMBERING

It has been five years since two of our friends were attacked here at Lakeside. Debbie Kornegay was killed and Eve Beasley was seriously injured. We grieved for Debbie and prayed for Eve. We wept for the loss to our community and lamented the sense of security that was ripped from us all.

It has been five years, and while we do not constantly think about what happened on that misty Thursday morning in mid-October, we have not forgotten. Above all, we have not forgotten Debbie and Eve. We still miss Debbie and rejoice in the gifted person she was and for the many ways she continues to bless our lives. We also rejoice that with excellent medical care, support from family and friends, and the healing compassion of God, Eve is doing well. We remember.

On Thursday, October 18, guided devotions will be available in the Columbarium/Labyrinth garden. You may come by at any time of the day to pray, reflect, grieve, and rejoice. We remember because we do not need to forget. We remember because our friends remain an important part of our lives.

PRAYING WITH OUR HANDS AND OUR HEARTS

Lakeside Involved is our way of sharing the love of Christ in tangible ways with our community. It is a reminder that our lives are not our own but that we are called by God to share our talents, abilities, and resources with one another. On November 3 we will gather at 7:30 a.m. in Kincheloe Hall for breakfast and prayer before we go to our work sites. Two projects are dedicated to the memory of Debbie Kornegay and in honor of Eve Beasley. We will be working at the Christian Fellowship Home for Men painting their porch, putting mulch in the flower beds, and replacing a fence along one side of the property. Another group will prepare Thanksgiving treat bags with a "blessing mix" for Meals on Wheels clients. If you would like to participate in one of these projects or another that is better suited for you, return your sign up sheet or call the church office.

TEN THOUSAND VILLAGES MISSION FAIR

West Haven Presbyterian Church, 1001 West Haven Boulevard, will hold a Missions Fair on Saturdays, October 27 and November 3, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. and on Sundays, October 28 and November 4, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. Ten Thousand Villages products will be featured: ceramics, basketry, handcrafted jewelry, textiles and more. Proceeds benefit the artisans from the third world countries who created the crafts and support West Haven's local and global missions. All are invited! Call 446-5226 for more information.

TOPNOTCHER NEWS

Please join us for our Fall Luncheon on Friday, October 26, in Kincheloe Hall at 12:00 p.m. We will enjoy a delicious meal prepared by some of Lakeside's best cooks. Following lunch, we will gather by the new labyrinth as Elizabeth Edwards explains its history and gives us prayers to use as we enjoy our meditation in the prayer garden. You will not want to miss this special time to share our love and friendship as well as celebrate our new labyrinth. Please call the church office to sign up.

2ND ANNUAL ENFIELD FISHING CREEK PADDLE

Downtown Enfield Restoration and Preservation invites you to join in the fun on Saturday, October 27 for a 5-mile kayak and canoe paddle on Fishing Creek. The cost of $30 per individual or $25 per person for a group of three or more includes lunch and a t-shirt. For more information or to register, go to www.enfield.org.

YOUTH NEWS

Be sure to mark your calendar for a work day fund raiser the morning of Saturday, October 27. Youth and adults will be needed to help. Your help is also needed for a special youth project for Lakeside Involved on November 3. Please let me know as soon as possible if you can help.

Details about the ski trip to Winterplace, WV, on January 25-27, 2013, are now available on the Current Events page on the website. The cost is $175 per person for the weekend. A non-refundable deposit of $45 per person is due no later than November 11. We will have a regular schedule of choirs, dinner and SNL this week. I look forward to seeing you all on Sunday. Elizabeth

YOUTH WORKDAY

The youth will hold a Work Day on Saturday, October 27, in order to raise money for their trip fund. Teams are available on a first-come, first served basis to do jobs around the house (window washing, yard work, cleaning, etc.) for a donation. Please call the church office to sign up.

MUSIC NOTES

Children's Choir - Please mark your calendar for Sunday, November 4, when the children will sing in worship at 11:00 a.m. Rehearsal will be at 9:15 a.m. in the sanctuary. Please remember that attendance each week at Sunday evening rehearsals is very important as we continue to prepare to lead in worship together. Amy
