2019 MINISTRY PLAN REVISED

Following worship last Sunday, the congregation met in conference to consider revising our Ministry Plan for this year. Sam Johnson, Chair of the Board of Finance, explained that in order to be good stewards of our resources, we needed to alter our financial plans for the year. The congregation voted unanimously to approve the revision.

We were also challenged to revise our giving by seriously considering what each of us can do in order to support our ministries. Only by giving generously and doing our part can we fulfill our calling to serve Christ in our community. We are blessed in so many ways. May we, in turn, bless others.

WOMEN'S RETREAT

This year's Women's Retreat will take place February 22-23 at the Barker Home on the Reservoir. Leah Anderson Reed, daughter of Anna and LaCount Anderson and Minister with Community at First Baptist Raleigh, will lead us in a time of study, reflection, prayer, fellowship, and fun. The theme is "Neighboring, verb, the messy, beautiful work of extending hospitality." We will begin with dinner at 5:00 p.m. on Friday and end with dinner on Saturday. The cost of $50 per person includes meals. Please call the church office to sign up or for more information.

I am slowly on the mend. My progress from not being able to walk, to a wheel chair, to a walker and now trying to go from walker to walking cane, has taken a long 3 1/2 months. I had two months of in-home therapy 3 days a week and now have out-patient therapy 3 days a week for the next 10 weeks, depending on my progress. I wish to thank all for the prayers and the cards I have received. I know without a doubt in my mind I would not be where I am now without them. God bless you all and God bless Lakeside!
Brent Tyndall

We offer our sympathy to Virginia Cobb in the death of her son-in-law, Woody Howard Wilkinson, on February 1 in Smithfield, NC.

We offer our sympathy to the family and friends of Bernie Capps, a friend to many in the community, who died on Sunday, February 10.

We rejoice with Dana and Brandon Howell in the birth of their daughter Helen Layne on February 8 in Cary. Winnie and Philip Johnson are the proud grandparents.

NEW MEMBER

We rejoice with Madi Adkins who made her profession of faith on February 10 and was received into the fellowship of Lakeside. Madi is the daughter of Brandy and Bobby Adkins and granddaughter of Sue Daughety. She is an eighth grader at Red Oak Middle School.

YOUTH NEWS

Sunday night's Valentine Banquet was so much fun! Many thanks to the youth who helped to host the event, Youth Committee members who assisted with dinner and clean-up, and the Topnotchers who attended.

This-coming Saturday is an important day for raising money for our summer trip fund and local missions. Youth and adults are needed to volunteer throughout the morning and assist with clean-up. We will have a regular schedule on Sunday night. I look forward to seeing you all on Sunday. Elizabeth

BENVENUE TEACHER APPRECIATION

As part of our Backpack Buddies partnership with Benvenue Elementary School, we would like to show our appreciation for the school's faculty and staff during this cold and flu season. We will collect tissues, hand sanitizer, and sanitizing wipes in the bin by the church office through this Sunday, February 17.

MUSIC NOTES

A wonderful time was had by all the children last Sunday evening as we hosted storyteller Fred Motley in Missions and Music. Through stories and games, he shared life lessons of love, kindness, and mercy. Some of our friends from HeARTw♥rks joined in the fun, too! We hope all of our children will join us on Sundays at 5:00 p.m. as we discover how our love of music helps us share our faith. Looking ahead, the Alleluia Choir will sing in worship on March 17. The Cherub and Alleluia Choirs will sing April 14. Amy

LAKESIDE LADIES BOOK CLUB

Our Lakeside ladies will meet Tuesday, March 5, at 7:00 p.m. at the home of Sue Bulluck (3312 Cornwallis Drive). Sue will lead a discussion of Lila by Marilynne Robinson. Come join in the camaraderie and conversation!
