YOUTH NEWS

Although we are surrounded by other languages and ideas and cultures every day, the opportunities to share with and understand those who are different from us are rare indeed. Thank you, Lakeside, for helping to create such an opportunity for our youth and those from Fresh Youth Initiatives this week. We have said goodbye to our friends, but because of the time, support and generosity of so many in the Lakeside family, we carry with us memories of a wonderful week together and stronger bonds of friendship.

Please mark your calendars for our car wash on May 3, the end of year cookout on May 4, and Youth and Graduate Sunday on May 18. Enjoy the rest of your spring break and have a Happy Easter!
Elizabeth

CHURCH-WIDE PICNIC

Plan to join us for a church-wide picnic on Sunday, May 4. The fun will begin around 4:00 p.m. with games and activities for the whole family followed by dinner together. More details about menu and location will be announced next week.

MUSIC NOTES

Lakeside Ringers will lead in worship on Easter Sunday. Please meet in the sanctuary at 9:15 a.m. for rehearsal.

Great job to the Children's Choir for singing and leading in the procession of palms! Thank you to the choir moms who helped! Your support is awesome!

Amy
