MISSIONS MARKETPLACE

The musical treat Bugz! will be presented by our children on April 29 during Missions Marketplace as they lead us in raising money and awareness for local and global missions. The Silent Auction will open at 5:00 p.m. in Sugg Foyer and will feature prayer boxes decorated by the children. You are also invited to contribute your creations. If you paint, sculpt, carve, knit, sew, garden, or have other talents to offer, we hope you will participate. Bring your items to the church office by Thursday, April 26.

At 6:00 p.m., we will enjoy a potluck picnic. We'll provide fried chicken, bread, and beverages. Please bring a vegetable, side dish, or dessert for the picnic. Be sure to sign up for dinner by contacting the church office or completing the Event Registration form on the website by April 25.

ANNE BAILEY'S ART WORK

The family of Anne Bailey has donated several of her paintings and prints to be offered during our Missions Marketplace auction. Anne was a talented artist who had a gift for capturing the beauty of objects and places with color and detail. We have prints starting with 8x10's up through larger, framed original watercolors. If you are interested but are unable to attend Missions Marketplace, please contact the church office about a time to browse the artwork. Proceeds will benefit the youth trip fund and local missions.

TOPNOTCHERS LUNCHEON

Please join us on May 8 as we travel to Halifax, North Carolina, to have lunch at The Hen and The Hog, which was recently featured on The Tarheel Traveler. More details will follow.

We offer our sympathy to the family of Corrinne Willcox who died on April 11. Corrinne was a member of Lakeside for 58 years.

We offer our sympathy to Kathy Hutcheson, Margy Brantley, and Witten Ward in the death of their sister and aunt, Carole Bright Trout, on April 16 in Slidell, Louisiana.

We offer our sympathy to Debra and Robert Kincheloe in the death of her aunt, Ethel Mae Joyner, on April 13.

To Our Lakeside Family,

There are not enough words to express our many thanks for the love shown to our family during the passing our Mama, Crin, and Mawmee. We have appreciated each of the visits, cards, calls, flowers, and food along with the overall kindness and immeasurable compassion. We ask for your continued prayers as we transition into our new normal. Many blessings from all of us and may music forever be in your hearts.
The Willcox Family

LAKESIDE LADIES BOOK CLUB

Our book club will meet on Tuesday, May 8, at 7:00 p.m. with Deborah Wright as host (3616 Litchfield Drive). Edna Corn will facilitate a discussion of The Girl with Seven Names: A North Korean Defector's Story by Hyeonseo Lee.

A HELPING HAND FOR UNITED COMMUNITY MINISTRIES

Local Wake Forest alumni, led by Jim Martin and Joe Whisnant, invite you to join them in providing needed supplies for UCM. In support of Wake's annual Pro Humanitate Day, we will collect non-perishable food, paper goods, laundry detergent, hygiene items, bedding, towels or pillows (new or gently used) for UCM through April 21. Donation bins are located in the church office and Sugg Foyer.

YOUTH NEWS

This Sunday night will be our last regular schedule of choirs, dinner, and SNL for this school year. I hope you can all join us for Missions Marketplace on April 29 when your help will be needed with the silent auction. Let me know if you can help with Sunday School or the worship service for Youth and Graduate Sunday on May 20. If you would like to assist with VBS, please register as a volunteer no later than May 15. And, of course, Gatekeepers is not that far away, so be sure to return your forms by the deadline. I look forward to seeing you all on Sunday.
Elizabeth

MUSIC NOTES

Thank you to the Chancel Choir for the music of comfort and joy shared at Corrinne Willcox's memorial service. Bo Browder, Catherine Cobb and Maggie Paszek, your singing was a blessing to all who heard on Sunday! Thank you for sharing your gifts.

Dress rehearsal for Missions Marketplace is this Sunday starting at 5:00 p.m. All lines, solo parts, and songs need to be memorized. If you haven't signed up for this fun event, call the church office. You don't want to miss out!

CONETOE BEEHIVE PROJECT

Thanks to our friends from Conetoe and our churches, we were able to paint a lot of bee hive parts last Saturday, but we still have a ways to go. This Saturday, April 21, we will paint from 8:30 till around 1:00. Hopefully we can begin putting the hives together on April 28 and finish by May 12. All work is being done in the basement of Church of the Good Shepherd. Ted Sherburne (252-458-4692).
