LAKESIDE HAPPENINGS

Although we like to think of summer as a time to slow the pace and relax a bit, that rarely happens at Lakeside. The summer months, like those in the fall, winter, and spring, are full of fun activities, meaningful events, and important work.

The repair of the south foyer wall is complete. Many thanks to Bill Marshburn and the D.J. Rose Company for their excellent work restoring our building.

This week downspouts are being installed to replace the ones that were stolen earlier in the year. We appreciate David Corn's assistance in finding the right company to handle this project.

The final installation of the new stained glass window in the prayer room of the narthex will also be completed this week. This window, which honors the memory of Fred Turnage, is a gift of the Turnage family. When the lighting of the window is installed, we will hold a dedication of the window.

On Sunday, June 29, immediately following worship, we will hold a brief congregational conference for the purpose of recommending Shawn Crumley for enrollment in the Master of Divinity degree program at Campbell Divinity School. Shawn is exploring God's call to ministry, and his studies will well prepare him for the opportunities ahead.

Sadly, we bid farewell to Stephanie Bynum this week as she and her husband Peter prepare to move to Concord where Peter will become Pastor of First Presbyterian Church in that community. The Bynums have been an important part of our community and Stephanie has been invaluable to our staff and church. We wish them well.

Sunday School, worship, children and youth activities, committee work, choir events, missions work, fellowship—church life continues unabated every season of the year at Lakeside. And we are thankful. This summer be with us as often as you can and keep up with us when you are away. Jody Wright

We are grateful to all who have responded to the request to assist the family of Nyreek Horne, the 12-year-old who was critically injured in the shooting behind Word Tabernacle in January. You are also invited to donate furniture and household items needed by the family. Living room furniture (sofa, chairs, end tables, lamps), a futon or air mattress, dressers or chests of drawers, bed and bath linens, and kitchen items are needed. Please email Shawn Crumley at shawn@sound-partners.com. In order to avoid duplications, please do not drop off items at the church without checking first.

WORKSHOP OF WONDERS VBS

We are having a wonderful week imagining and building with God at the Workshop of Wonders VBS! It takes the tremendous time and talent of many people to put together a week of learning and fun for over 100 children! Along with our neighbors from Church of the Good Shepherd, First Presbyterian, Saint Andrew's Episcopal, and West Haven Presbyterian, many members of the Lakeside family have contributed to making it a terrific week!

Special thanks to Elaine Jaber and Leslie Paszek who have been a part of the planning team that has been meeting since January and who volunteered this week. Thanks to Linda Ford, Sue Daughety, Mary Frances Raper, Patsy Marshburn, Teresa Herring, Jody Wright, Sammie Crumley, Debbie Ozment, Ginny Cobb, Liz Lane, and Don Raper who have served as teachers and leaders in various areas. I am also grateful to our youth helpers: Katy Jaber, Daniela Novakova, Charlie Lane, Carson Browder, Sara Raper, Camille Wilkerson, Meagan Daugherty, and Grace Bishop; to those who helped with snacks and the Friday luncheon: Jessica Williams, Brenda Cotton, Faye Conner, Laura Henderson, Witten Ward, Edna Corn, Genie Raper, Tavener Parker, and Joanna McDevitt; and those who helped with set-up and decorating last week: Beth and John Seagroves, Anne Chappell, Betsy Waters, Amy Green, Michelle Noyes, Sydney Browder.
