WITH JOY AND GRATITUDE

Words alone are not adequate to express everything that last Sunday meant to us and our family. Twenty years ago you invited us into the Lakeside family and today our lives are fully entwined. We are thankful for every way that you have welcomed us into your lives and stepped into ours. We are grateful for the abundant ways that you have cared for us, our children, and our parents.

Thank you for Sunday. The service was beautiful in every way and the luncheon was the kind of family dinner that we often enjoy at Lakeside. Your personal expressions of love for us and your ongoing support of us are amazing. Your gift to us is, to say the least, overwhelming. Thanks to each of you for your generosity, for your kindness, and for your love. We are blessed.

Jody and Deborah Wright

HELP FOR VICTIMS OF HURRICANE FLORENCE

Hurricane Florence resulted in massive damage and suffering for our neighbors east and south of us. Recovery will be a long and arduous process as we well understand. Thank you to everyone who has donated supplies and money so far.

CBF Global has discovered that the community of Trenton, North Carolina, received no assistance following the storm. They are asking congregations to provide help to the people of this small town.

If you would like to spend a day cleaning out homes that were flooded, or help in some other way, please call the office to let us know. We already have a few people who are interested in going to Trenton and we will coordinate getting a group together. At the same time, we will send the supplies we have collected.

We will continue to receive cleaning supplies such as five gallon buckets, mops, sponges, multipurpose cleaners, bleach, and mold remover. Financial gifts will be received as well.

STAGED READING AT THE IMPERIAL CENTRE

Three titles have been selected for the Staged Reading Series at the Theatre at the Imperial Center this fall. Two works will be read on Friday, October 5, at 7:00 p.m.: "Keeping Score" by Jim Lee and "Gardenia Daze" by Lela Chesson. The final reading will be "Found Objects" by Marilynn Barner Anselmi on November 2 at 7:00 p.m. Lela's work is a short one-act play about an elderly grandmother who tries to hold back tears at her granddaughter's wedding.

Dear Lakeside Family,

Thank you very much for the visits, calls, cards, food, and especially your prayers during my recent knee surgery and recovery. Brenda and I are blessed to be a part of a loving, caring church family and truly appreciate each of you.

Wayne Cotton

We offer our sympathy to the family and friends of Judy Draper who died on September 25 in Raleigh. A native of Rocky Mount, she was a friend to many people in our congregation and the community.

HeARTw♥rks

HeARTw♥rks, Lakeside's after school tutoring program for neighborhood children, begins Monday, October 15. An orientation session for all volunteers will be held immediately following worship on Sunday, September 30, in the youth building. Anyone who would like to learn more about volunteer opportunities is welcome to join us.

SING THROUGH ME, LORD OF LIFE

The Chancel Choir's new CD of sacred anthems, Sing through Me, Lord of Life, is dedicated to the glory of God and in loving memory of Corrinne Willcox and Don Scalf. The CD is available in the narthex on Sunday or in the church office during the week at the following prices: 1 @ $10.00, 3 @ $25.00, 5 @ $40.00. All proceeds will benefit the Lakeside music programs.

YOUTH NEWS

It was fun to be together on Sunday night and to begin to think about what it means for us to trust God. I hope to see all of you here this Sunday evening for a regular schedule of choirs, dinner, and LYF. Remember to submit your ideas for our t-shirt design by this Sunday evening. Nominations for next summer's Pilgrimage location need to be made by Sunday, October 7. Plan to join us on October 21 as we host Lakeside's children for our annual Fall Festival. I look forward to seeing everyone on Sunday. Elizabeth

"FRIENDS" FOR OUR NEIGHBORS

Lakeside's children and youth will be collecting stuffed animals, dolls, and action figures to send to children who are displaced by Hurricane Florence. All toys should be new. Some of our young people will be in the narthex before and after worship on September 30 and October 7 to receive donations. Children and youth can also bring donations with them on Sunday evenings, or they can be dropped off at the church office. Help us to share "friends" to bring comfort to our youngest neighbors in crisis.

MUSIC NOTES

Missions and Music, the Cherub Choir, and the Alleluia Choir got off to a great start on Sunday evening with music, crafts and storytelling. Wait to see what we weave into next week! Sign up today for our trip to the new Event Center to see the Harlem Globetrotters on November 4. Lakeside Ringers will ring in worship on November 11 and December 16. Chancel Choir, excellent singing on Sunday! Amy

LAKESIDE LADIES BOOK CLUB

Our Book Club will meet again on Tuesday, October 2, at 7:00 p.m. at the home of Jackie Allsbrook (213 Old Colony Way). Terry Martin will facilitate a discussion of Varina by Charles Frazier. Come join the conversation!

FLOWER CALENDAR

You may reserve dates for altar and narthex floral arrangements by signing up on the 2019 Flower Calendar in the office hallway or by calling the church office.

Following is a list of the active resident adult members of our congregation who are eligible for the office of Deacon. The Deacon Nominating Committee would like for you to use this list in making nominations for the office of Deacon in our congregation. On November 18, we will elect five persons to serve for the next three years. You are encouraged to nominate up to five people by placing a check mark(✓) in the box beside their names. Please return this form to the church office no later than Sunday, October 28. The names of current Deacons and members who have served in the past two years have been removed. Please, only one set of nominations per church member.
