HELP FOR TRENTON

This week we are delivering the supplies you donated to the community of Trenton, North Carolina. This small town experienced flooding in every building and was completely cut off from help for several days.

We hope to send a work crew next week to assist in clean up and begin the process of rebuilding. If you would like to participate, please let us know which days of the week you are available.

“FRIENDS” FOR OUR NEIGHBORS

Lakeside’s children and youth are collecting stuffed animals, dolls, and action figures to send to children displaced by Hurricane Florence. All toys should be new. Some of our young people will be in the narthex before and after worship on October 7 to receive donations. The toys can also be brought on Sunday evening or dropped off at the church office. Help us bring comfort to children in crisis.

LELA CHESSON’S PLAY AT THE IMPERIAL CENTRE

Three titles have been selected for the Staged Reading Series at the Theatre at the Imperial Centre this fall. Two works will be read on Friday, October 5, at 7:00 p.m.: “Keeping Score” by Jim Lee and “Gardenia Daze” by Lela Chesson. The final reading will be “Found Objects” by Marilyn Barner Anselmi on November 2 at 7:00 p.m. Lela Chesson’s work is a short one-act play about an elderly grandmother who tries to hold back tears at her granddaughter’s wedding.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE BEGINS ITS WORK

The Nominating Committee will begin making calls this week to fill positions in our committees for 2019. We are grateful to everyone who serves in various ways to support the ministries of our congregation. If you are asked to serve, please prayerfully consider the opportunity to minister through one of our committees.

Please also remember to submit your nominations for deacons who will serve us over the next three years. Nominations are due by October 28. A copy of the list of eligible members can be found on our website attached to the September 26 edition of The Link.

Do you have your copy of Sing Through Me, Lord of Life?
How about family and friends?

YOUTH NEWS

Where do you see the image of God woven into creation? How do you see the characteristics of God reflected in the people around you? How do you imagine a God who is so far beyond our description or comprehension? These are just a few of the questions we will continue to explore when we gather on Sunday evening as we learn more about the God in whom we are called to trust. Come and bring a friend. After Youth Fellowship, we will head out to Dunkin Donuts for a treat. Bring a few dollars and let me know if you need a ride home.

Remember that Sunday night is the deadline for nominations for next summer's Pilgrimage location and for signing up for the Globetrotters outing on November 4. I look forward to seeing you all on Sunday. Elizabeth

MUSIC NOTES

When I was a child, my parents took me to see the Harlem Globetrotters. I have only the best memories of watching those games as the players who are amazing athletes, comedians, and brilliant choreographers made the event a spectacle for all ages to enjoy. On Sunday, November 4, our young people will take a field trip to see the Harlem Globetrotters at our new Rocky Mount Event Center. If you love to laugh, enjoy watching basketball and spending time with good friends, you don't want to miss this opportunity. "Young at Heart" people are welcome, too! Please sign up by contacting the church office no later than October 7. We will meet at Lakeside at 3:00 p.m. Tickets are $25 each.

Dates to remember:

- November 4: The Alleluia Choir sings for worship.
- November 4: See the Harlem Globetrotters at Rocky Mount Event Center.
- November 11: The Lakeside Ringers will play for worship.
- November 18: The Cherub Choir will sing for worship.

Amy
