LAKESIDE INVOLVED

For the Lakeside congregation, the first Saturday in November has become a day of service to our community. This year, however, November 3 will be a day of service for Trenton, North Carolina, a community devastated by Hurricane Florence. Lap blankets and dream pillows will still be made, comfort kits and Life Packs will be assembled, chili will be prepared and served, supplies will be collected, blood will be donated, flooded homes will be cleared, and yards will be cleaned and cut as we go to be involved in the world.

Everyone who wants to travel to Trenton and work for the day will meet at Lakeside at 7:00 a.m. All other participants, including children, are asked to arrive at the church at 9:00 a.m. to complete their projects. Breakfast will not be served this year. Sign up sheets are available on our website and in the church office. Please return them as soon as possible.

SHAWL MINISTRY NEWS

The Shawl Ministry will meet at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, November 6, at the home of Carol Taylor, 3519 Boseman Road. A soup lunch will be served. Please come dressed casually and bring your projects. If you would like to learn to knit or crochet, someone will be glad to help you. For anyone who wants to learn how to easily make a scarf, Carol will teach you to finger knit and supply the materials. For more information and to RSVP, call Carol Taylor at (704) 877-1100 or email her at carolreal@aol.com.

NEW MEMBER

We rejoice with Anna Adkins who made her profession of faith on October 14. Anna is the daughter of Brandy and Bobby Adkins and is a sixth grader at Red Oak Middle School.

LACOUNT ANDERSON'S 2019 CALENDARS AVAILABLE

LaCount Anderson has made his beautiful 2019 calendars available for sale in our church office. Paintings include scenes from Highway 48, Leggett, Dawson crossroads, and our very own Lakeside handbells. They are $20 each and checks can be made payable to LaCount Anderson.

THE EMPTY CHAIR

Join North Carolina's first lady, Kristen Cooper, for a dinner and silent auction benefitting My Sister's House. The Empty Chair event will be held at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 25, at the Fleming Building of Edgecombe Community College (2009 West Wilson Street, Tarboro). For more information and to purchase tickets visit mshnc.org. or call 252-316-8444.

YOUTH NEWS

We need your help to host our annual Fall Festival for Lakeside's children and friends from the neighborhood this Sunday. Youth and committee members should arrive by 4:30 p.m. Please come in costume and plan to stay until about 7:30 p.m. to help with clean-up.

On Sunday evening, October 28, youth from First Presbyterian will join us in helping Habitat for Humanity get their new offices ready. Watch your email for details. I hope all of you plan to participate in Lakeside Involved on November 3, Jingle Mingle on November 25, and our trip to Winston-Salem for the Moravian Love Feast on December 2. See you all on Sunday. Elizabeth

YOUTH SUNDAY SCHOOL

Join us this Sunday, October 21, for youth Sunday School at Starbucks (by Sam's Club). Bring a little $ for a treat! We will meet at 10:00 a.m., but if you need a ride, meet us in the youth room at 9:45 a.m. We will return to church by 10:45 a.m. for worship. Rebecca Watkins and Andrew Robillard, teachers

MUSIC NOTES

We have exciting plans for the first weekend of November for all children! On Saturday, November 3, our children (ages 3 through 13) will participate in Lakeside Involved by singing and making gifts for nursing home residents. We will also make cards with poems and prayers to include in disaster relief "Life Packs." The children will meet in the music suite at 9:00 a.m. and can be picked up at noon. On Sunday, November 4, our Alleluia Choir will sing for the first time in worship! Please meet in the sanctuary at 9:15 a.m. for rehearsal. This group is making beautiful sounds and their gift of music will be a blessing to us all. That afternoon, we will go see the Harlem Globetrotters at our new Rocky Mount Event Center. Join us as we sing, serve and celebrate! Amy
