FALL FESTIVAL

Join us for an evening of fun on Sunday, October 27, from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. The whole family is invited for a hot dog supper, candy, games, crafts, a hay ride, and more. The Children's Committee and youth host this event for our children. Come in costume, but wear nothing bloody or scary, please. Feel free to bring a friend and a bag for treats. Call the church office or visit the website to sign up.

LAKESIDE INVOLVED

Lakeside Involved is Saturday, November 2, and final preparations are being made for our annual day of ministry to the community. There are projects for all ages, giving each of us an opportunity to use the variety of gifts and talents we possess. If you have not yet signed up, please contact the church office.

Remember that November 2 is the final day to bring canned goods and supplies for United Community Ministries for use during the month. We still need people to bake cookies for our First Responders. Contact Genie Raper if you would like to help. If you would like to prepare soup for our Members-at-Home, please call Susan Skinner. We are continuing to collect books for the Little Free Libraries. Book lists are available in the church office and on our website. Visit the Current Events page where you will find a link on the Lakeside Involved article.

Our annual Red Cross Blood Drive will be held the Monday following Lakeside Involved. On November 4 from 2:30 - 7:00 p.m., you may donate blood to benefit hospital patients and accident victims in our area. You may sign up in the narthex on Sunday mornings or make an on-line appointment at redcrossblood.org/make-donation.

We are grateful to everyone who has donated their time and talents and to all who have contributed financially to this ministry. All donations are appreciated.

FAMILY DEDICATION

This Sunday, October 27, we will celebrate the dedication of Lindley Addison Green, daughter of Amy and David Green.

SHAWLS AVAILABLE IN NARTHEX

Shawls are now available in the Narthex for those who need extra warmth on Sunday mornings. Please return shawls to the basket following worship each week. Many thanks to Sharon Boistard for her time and talent in crocheting them for us.

HAVE YOU VISITED LAKESIDE'S WEBSITE?

Did you know that you can sign up for fellowship meals, trips, and special activities online? Did you know that you can access devotions, read sermons, and listen to each Sunday's worship online? Did you know that you could be reading this edition of The Link from your computer—on Wednesday—instead of waiting for it to arrive in the mail? You can even make donations to the church or pay for church activities online. From the home page, choose "Our Stewardship" or click on the link for online giving and follow the prompts to the secure payment form.

Our website has all of these and many other resources. Visit us at: lakesidechurchrmt.org!

YOUTH NEWS

Thanks to Carol Barker and all the youth who were present on Sunday night as we made preparations for the Fall Festival and Lakeside Involved. We will meet at the church at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday for our work day and at 4:00 p.m. on Sunday for the Fall Festival. Please let me know as soon as possible if you can take part in Lakeside Involved on November 2. I look forward to seeing you on Sunday.
Elizabeth

CHILDREN'S CHURCH

All children in grades K-5 are invited to participate in Children's Church this Sunday led by Sue Daughety. Children will depart worship during the second hymn for Bible stories and other activities.

MUSIC NOTES

The Children's Choir is diligently preparing to sing in worship on Sunday, November 3. Please mark your calendars.

Lakeside Ringers will attend the Capital Area Handbell Festival in Raleigh on Saturday, November 9.

The Chancel Choir is also preparing wonderful music each week, especially for All Saints Sunday, November 3. Harpist Anita Burrows-Price and oboist Sandy Posch, from the North Carolina Symphony will also provide music for this service. See you in rehearsal and worship!
Amy
