LAKESIDE INVOLVED

For the Lakeside congregation, the first Saturday in November has become a day of service to our community. This year, however, November 3 will be a day of service for Trenton, North Carolina, a community devastated by Hurricane Florence. Lap blankets and dream pillows will still be made, comfort kits and Life Packs will be assembled, chili will be prepared and served, supplies will be collected, blood will be donated, flooded homes will be cleared, and yards will be cleaned and cut as we go to be involved in the world.

Everyone who wants to travel to Trenton and work for the day will meet at Lakeside at 7:00 a.m. All other participants, including children, are asked to arrive at the church at 9:00 a.m. to complete their projects. Breakfast will not be served this year. Sign up sheets are available on our website and in the church office. Please return them as soon as possible.

RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE

One of our Lakeside Involved projects is a Red Cross blood drive on Monday, November 12, from 2:30-7:30 p.m. in Robbins Hall. Because of recent hurricanes, thousands of units of blood were not collected. Sign up now to give the gift of life at: <https://www.redcrossblood.org/give.html/find-drive>.

“SING THROUGH ME” PRINTS AVAILABLE

Marion Weathers has made prints of her artwork which adorns the cover of our choir’s recent CD. Two sizes are available, both on archival watercolor paper, hand titled and hand signed by the artist, with a certificate of authenticity. They are packaged in an archival clear display envelope. A 7”x7” giclee print is $20.00 and an 11”x11” giclee print (full size of original) is $40.00.

FIRST RESPONDERS DINNER

The Jim Dickens First Responders Appreciation Dinner to honor all the first responders in Nash and Edgecombe counties will be held from 5:00-8:00 p.m. on November 13 in the Rocky Mount Event Center. Also on the program are musical settings of poetry by Emily Dickinson and James Agee. A group of cowboy songs (with an award winning whistler!) and two spirituals conclude the program. YOUTH NEWS

Thanks to everyone who helped to make Sunday night's Fall Festival a success. Youth, as well as members of the Youth Committee, Children's Committee, and Social Committee all pitched in to help with set-up, provide food, and supervise games and crafts. Great job, everyone!

Youth, if you are not in choir, be sure to arrive by 5:25 p.m. on Sunday. All Youth will depart for the mission project with Habitat for Humanity at 5:30. Carol and Andy Barker will lead you in my absence, and you will meet up with the youth from First Presbyterian to assist Habitat with its move to its new location. I hope all of you plan to participate in Lakeside Involved on November 3, Jingle Mingle on November 25, and our trip to Winston-Salem for the Moravian Love Feast on December 2. Elizabeth
