I am overwhelmed and humbled by all the love and caring shown to Charles and me these recent weeks. Charles loved Lakeside and so do I. Thank you for each remembrance shown in so many ways. They are all deeply appreciated. Thank you.

Dear Lakeside Family,

I learned many years ago that friends are more valuable than gold and you have enriched my life beyond measure during my recent surgery and recovery by your loving care and concern. Your pre-surgery well wishes, Jody's presence and comforting prayer on the day of surgery, and your calls, e-mails and cards during my recovery have engaged my mind, touched my heart and tickled my funny bone! I am truly blessed by God to have each of you in my life - my cup runneth over.

Stancel Barnes

Our Youth Choir will lead in worship on March 30. Amy

MISSIONS MARKETPLACE 2014: BECOMING GOD'S DREAM

Plan to join Lakeside's children Sunday, April 6, as they host a dinner theater and present the musical, The Tale of Three Trees. A raffle will also be a part of this special evening to raise awareness of and funds for missions.

Half of the proceeds will benefit global missions while the other half will be used for local ministries. The children have decided to use the local money to help fund our annual Christmas Gingerbread Party, birthday parties, and other outings for the children at the Bassett Center.

Tickets for the dinner theater will be available for purchase in the church office beginning Monday, March 17. Tickets for children through grade 5 will be $5.00 and tickets for youth and adults will be $10.00. The dinner menu will include Moravian chicken pie, green beans, glazed carrots, fresh fruit, yeast rolls, and assorted desserts.

We hope you will make this evening a meaningful part of your Lenten journey as we continue to celebrate the season through song.
