We offer our sympathy to Jeff and Cassie Dodson in the death of his grandfather, Billy Joe Williams, on March 14, in Fayetteville.

LAKESIDE BOOK CLUB

A new book club is being organized for those ladies of Lakeside who enjoy reading and discussing a variety of engaging literature. Our first meeting will be Thursday, April 7, at 7:00 p.m. at the home of Deborah Wright (3616 Litchfield Drive). We will discuss the book All The Light We Cannot See by Anthony Doerr. If you are interested in joining us, please contact Terry Martin (450-5610; tmm300@suddenlink.net) or Deborah Wright (908-5391; deborahwright@embarqmail.com).

LET'S CHANGE HUNGER

Lakeside's Youth and Children are participating in a coin drive to raise money to combat childhood hunger in our community. Now through Sunday, April 3, three teams—Youth, Children, and the Lakeside Preschool—will collect coins, with the team raising the most money enjoying an ice cream sundae party. Proceeds will help us to continue the Backpack Buddies program at Benvenue Elementary School through the summer months. If you would like to make a contribution to Backpack Buddies, you may do so through the church office. If you would like to support one or more teams, you may give coins to one of the youth or children or place them in the collection boxes in the appropriate classroom on Sunday morning. Together, we can change hunger!

YOUTH NEWS

Congratulations to Lindy Pittman for another fun and successful Duck, Dodge & Donate tournament, and thanks to the Lakeside youth and others who helped to raise money and awareness by participating. What a fun event! Thanks, also, to everyone who donated candy, stuffed eggs, helped with crafts, and hid eggs for the children's Easter party on Sunday.

We will not have evening activities this coming Sunday. Watch your email for a possible Spring Break outing next week for those who are in town. I look forward to having the group back together on April 3 and to seeing you in Sunday School and worship on Sunday. Elizabeth

SPRING BOOK STUDY: EAT WITH JOY

We have a complicated relationship with food. We need food to live, yet our attitudes and habits can cause food to become a hindrance to our physical health and spiritual well being. In her book Eat With Joy: Redeeming God's Gift of Food, Rachel Marie Stone calls us to rediscover joyful eating by recognizing God's gift of provision and care, by seeing food's implications for stewardship of creation and justice for others, by responding to its call to community, and by remembering God's redemptive acts through our sacred rituals.

Join us for a seven-week study on Tuesdays at 7:00 p.m. beginning April 12, or on Wednesdays at 10:00 a.m. beginning April 13. Books are $12 each and are available in the church office. Call the office to sign up for the group you prefer.

MUSIC NOTES

The Children's Choir did a wonderful job singing in worship on Sunday! Please remember that evening activities will resume April 3. Attendance on Sunday evenings is important as we prepare for Missions Marketplace on May 1.

Lakeside Ringers will rehearse in the sanctuary on Wednesday and ring on Maundy Thursday and Easter Sunday. On Easter Sunday, rehearsal will be held in the sanctuary at 9:15 a.m.

Chancel Choir: I hope to see you all on Wednesday for rehearsal. Please meet in the music suite at 6:00 p.m. for rehearsal before the Maundy Thursday service. See you in rehearsal and worship. Amy

MORE NEW COOKBOOKS HAVE ARRIVED

Copies of Circle 10's new cookbook, Another Taste of Lakeside, have arrived and are available in the church office for $20 each. A few copies of the old cookbook are also available. Proceeds will support a variety of mission projects.
