LAKESIDE LADIES' BOOK CLUB

Our book club will meet on Tuesday, August 9, at 7:00 p.m. at the home of Jackie Allsbrook (113 Old Colony Way). Patty Farber-Schirman will facilitate a discussion on A Soft Place to Land by Susan Rebecca White. Debra Kincheloe will guide our conversation about The Great Gatsby when we meet in September.

FAMILY DEDICATION

On Sunday morning, we will celebrate the dedication of Avery Caroline Hunter, daughter of Ashley and Edward Hunter, and Kendall Dean Steffen, son of Caroline and Paul Steffen. Angie Hunter is Avery and Kendall's grandmother.

YOUTH NEWS

As our group returned from Seattle, it occurred to me what a remarkable thing it is that so many people of various faiths and languages were willing to welcome a group of strangers from nearly 3,000 miles away into their most sacred spaces, to give their time and share their beliefs with us. We met many wonderful people and saw beautiful sights along the way. My prayer is that we have returned with a better understanding of other faith traditions, a deeper sense of our own faith in Christ, and a commitment to extend the same hospitality to those around us. Many thanks to everyone in the Lakeside family who supported our youth in making this trip possible. Everyone will have a chance to hear more about the trip at a fellowship supper on Sunday evening, September 25 when our youth will share stories and pictures from the Pilgrimage. I look forward to seeing everyone on Sunday.
Elizabeth

NATIONAL NIGHT OUT

We enjoyed a wonderful evening with our neighbors during our National Night Out Ice Cream Social. The ice cream and desserts were delicious, the music was great, and the fellowship was fun. Many thanks to our Neighborhood Ministry Committee for organizing this event and to everyone who participated.

THANK YOU

Just as the current heat wave began, our ice maker stopped. James Biggs immediately researched options and found us a new ice maker which he and Jaye generously donated to the church. Many thanks to the Biggs!
