POEM BY WES

A Prodigal

*There is no satisfaction
When we live for self-alone,
Because sin and its distraction
Will cause our steps to roam.
As a prodigal we wander
Far from our Father's care;
An inheritance we squander
On our sins that lay us bare.
In our poverty, God's Spirit
Caused a longing in our heart,
To return unto our Father,
And from his love to never part.*
