POEM BY WES

I Am His

*Few greater words has this world known,
That I am His and He is mine.
How comforting this sober thought,
That we are one with God divine.
No greater love has God for man
Though blinded by sin now we see,
The wonders of such gracious love
Your sacrifice on Calvary*

THANK YOU FROM CHERVENS

We want to say how thankful and humbled we are to have such a loving and supporting Church Family. Since our announcement of God's calling to send us to Haiti we have been overwhelmed by the Love of Christ flowing through each and every one of you towards our family, through your prayers, your encouraging words and your financial support. We are blessed beyond words and our hearts are truly grateful for you. What a beautiful picture of how the church is supposed to function!

Because we are staying in Lexington, it makes it difficult for us to be there as often as we would like and with only 48 days till we move; we are saddened about what little time we have left to spend with you. Please continue to pray for us daily as I am sure the challenges will become great.
