A Community of Grace

It is a beautiful thing to see the church fulfilling some of the New Testament descriptions of the church. In Acts, the church (Acts 2:43-44) sold their possessions, had everything in common, and went out of their way to meet the needs of others. I think that pleases our heavenly Father when we sacrifice ourselves to meet the needs of others. I was so blessed to see that $6,300 was given in a love offering for the Chervens on Sunday. This gift will be such a blessing to them as they have committed their lives to taking the Gospel to Haiti and ministering to the people in Haiti. They are part of our family and I am so thankful for the outpouring of love, support, and prayer for them as Leah was in the accident and has returned to Kentucky for treatment.

I have also been blessed to see pictures our students doing ministry this week in Tennessee. Some did yard work (mulching, trimming, weeding, ...) outside, some ministered to children, and some ministered in a nursing home all week. Despite the heat, they labored and ministered to show the love of Christ to others. We are blessed by an awesome group of both students and leaders.

Sunday evening we were able to do a community outreach at Cardinal Circle. I enjoyed seeing our men playing ball with the kids and our ladies painting the faces of the children from Cardinal Circle. It is good for the church to leave the building and shine the light of Christ in our community. One of the things that I have always appreciated about Lancaster Baptist is her willingness to go outside our doors and reach out to our community. Bill and I made some visits on Monday evening. We were able to talk to some parents of our KidZRock children simply because we pick up their children and they love to come to church on Wednesday evenings. We haven't been able to reach too many of their parents but it sure is nice to be able to talk to them because of the impact of our KidZRock workers.

On Tuesday we had the privilege of feeding the fair workers. Again, that is a great way to show the love of Christ to others. I hope we take advantage of every opportunity the Lord gives us to be His witness. He tells us to go out and labor in the fields, to sow Gospel seeds, and to water the seeds. He is the Lord of the harvest and although we don't always see the harvest, we can be sure that God is mighty to save and allows us to be a participant in His great salvation. May He grant us many more opportunities and give us willing hearts to labor in the harvest!
