From Your Pastor

Moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found faithful. 1 Cor. 4:2

On Thursday, we lost another faithful servant – Priscilla Tudor. Sky and Pris served the Lord with great passion and joy. They were Gospel partners and many of us have been encouraged and challenged by their faithful service. Charles Spurgeon once said, “A Godly character is the best tombstone. Those who love you and were helped by you will remember you. So carve your names on hearts and not on marble.” Without any doubt, Priscilla Tudor had an effect on many people’s hearts. I enjoyed reading the Facebook comments from people around the country. So many were blessed by her kindness, service, and love.

As we prepare to celebrate Memorial Day, I am reminded of many faithful servants the Lord has allowed me to cross paths with in my lifetime. When I think back about so many who have gone to be with the Lord I can’t help but thank God for the hope He gives us through Jesus Christ. I’m so thankful that this life isn’t all there is. I’m thankful that Jesus has prepared a place called heaven where we will be with Him forever. He has graciously prepared a way for us to go to heaven through His sacrifice on the cross.

I mentioned in the funeral that Priscilla (and Sky) lived a Gospel-centered life. They cared about the souls of people and wanted people to hear the Gospel and be saved. Priscilla supported and loved Sunrise Children services and the various ministries to the children in need. Most of us Southern Baptist are familiar, and financially support, ministries like Sunrise, but Priscilla and Sky took additional steps to get involved in helping such ministries. The same can be said of GraceWorks Alaska, GAP, Kentucky Baptist Foundation, etc. I think maybe Pris’ life should encourage each of us to pick a ministry (maybe even one in the church) and get involved in that ministry. Yes, God is at work around us and He often invites us to join Him in His work. (It can be an exciting adventure.)

Sunday night we talked about Mentoring at Lancaster Elementary starting this fall. I was blessed to see the level of interest that has been shown. As Rick mentioned, this is an OPPORTUNITY that the Lord has provided and we need to be faithful in taking this opportunity to love and minister to at-risk children in our community. I think the Lord will bless this ministry as He loved the children when He walked on the earth. May God bless and multiply this ministry for His glory!

Bro. Harold
