From Your Pastor Men sharpening men

Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another. Proverb 27:17

Our men met after service last Wed. evening to talk about the coming year of ministry. It is always a challenge to get men together for a meeting but this meeting was well attended and one of the things we did at the beginning of the meeting was draw for accountability/prayer partners. I have already been blessed by being able to pray and text Walt on a regularly basis and know that he is doing the same for me. I hope you have somebody you are praying for daily.

Men need to help disciple one another, encourage one another, pray for one another, and be held accountable by one another. If you would like to have an accountability partner just see Michael Anderson (our fearless Men's leader) and he will hook you up with another man. Men are often the last to call for a prayer request but I have found that it is easier to notify a prayer partner and be more open and willing to share personal prayer request when they arise.

I lost a best friend in April 2014 and have sorely missed his friendship and struggled at finding another close friend. Friendships with Godly men are a great blessing in life. I have found that when I get to hang out with men (camping, hunting, biking, sports, Bible study, etc.) I am a better husband. Men need to be men and to do activities with other men (not at the expense of our wives or family).

We were even able to make some good plans for the coming year. We will be leading a Sportsman Expo on the Saturday night (12th) of LoveLoud. We will be serving chili/sides, giving away lots of guns and sporting items, and Chuck McAlister will be there (Garrard Middle) to share the Gospel. I hope you will be praying for this event. We will be sharing some of our other plans in the future.

Bro Harold
