

1 Tim 6:6-10

Dear Pastor Ken,

I just wanted to take a minute to let you know how blessed I feel to have found you and your church. From the moment I walked through the doors, I felt something different radiating through this church. Two and a half months ago, I came in dressed to the nines because at any other church I have attended, I was quite aware of the importance placed upon appearance. Here, no one cared how I was dressed, but they were just happy I had joined in worship and service. There were genuine smiles and hugs. No one was interested in where I came from and what the past held. Everyone was interested in creating an environment to grow in for the future. I have never experienced such authenticity. Nothing is sugar-coated, and that is quite possibly what gripped me most. There was not dog and pony show, only a group of people joined to share and grow in the wonder that is our savior, Jesus Christ. God put me here for a reason. I can honestly say that I am closer to God since attending LifeChurch than I have been at any other point in my entire life. My heart is more full and complete than it ever has been. God is doing awesome things here and through you and your team. Thank you for the opportunity to grow with such wonderful people in the presence of God.

Sincerely,

Emily Crowe
