What we focus on, or give our attention to determines our thoughts and our state of mind. I've heard a couple of different people share their experience when they were invited to take lessons to drive a racecar. The instructor told these individuals something like "what you look will determine where you will end up." Imagine when these novice racecar drivers found themselves coming around a turn and they saw the wall. They set their eyes on the wall, and guess where they headed? That's right, the instructor had to grab the wheel, or slam on the breaks to avoid crashing into the wall. So where have we fixed our eyes, and what has taken up residence in our minds?

If we look for people's failures, faults, imperfections and general negativity we will find it. We will also find ourselves living in the midst of what we have set our minds to. Proverbs 4:25 tells us "Look straight ahead, and fix your eyes on what lies before you" and from Hebrews 12:2 "keeping our eyes on Jesus". There is plenty to distract us, but we must be careful not to fix our eyes on what brings destruction. Today, remember what you dwell on will determine your destination. Focus on Jesus and you will be found in the center of His good, pleasing and perfect will!

"And now, dear brothers and sisters, one final thing. Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise." -Philippians 4:8
