While the official start is June 20th, many people regard Memorial Day weekend as the unofficial start of summer. Either way people want to be ready for the new season.

Imagine you spoke with a personal trainer who promised weight loss, increased energy, deeper sleep, and more toned muscles. I think everyone would love that promise. However, on your first day with this trainer you might think he is trying to kill you by making you endure grueling exercises while your heart races and your arms and legs feel like they will soon give way. Suddenly, the trainers promises are forgotten.

Likewise, God promises us that when we come to Him He will make all things new. Our first spiritual test may shake us and make us wonder if God really loves us. We question if God is good than why are bad things happening? If God is great why doesn't everyone follow Him? God promises abundant life, to never leave us, that He has a hope and a future for us, and that we will spend an eternity in Heaven with Him. We all desire the benefits of knowing Christ, yet when trials arise we must remember that He is at work.

This Sunday we continue our series called "RESET". As we allow God to work in us we are asking Him to reset our hearts, minds, hands and voices.

"But those who trust in the Lord will find new strength. They will soar high on wings like eagles. They will run and not grow weary. They will walk and not faint."

- Isaiah 40:31
