Welcome

Help the people find their way to the others.
Write the letters you find along the way in the squares below.

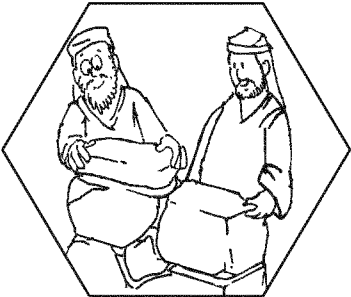

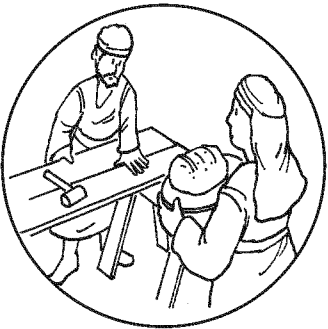

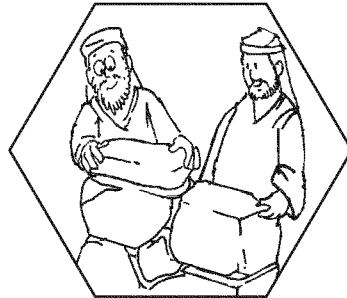

Connect the dots from 1 to 55.

Paul said they should mind their own business and work with their hands.

Match the shapes.

Then people would respect them, and they would not need to depend on others.

Living to Please God

Paul said the people had been taught by God to love each other.

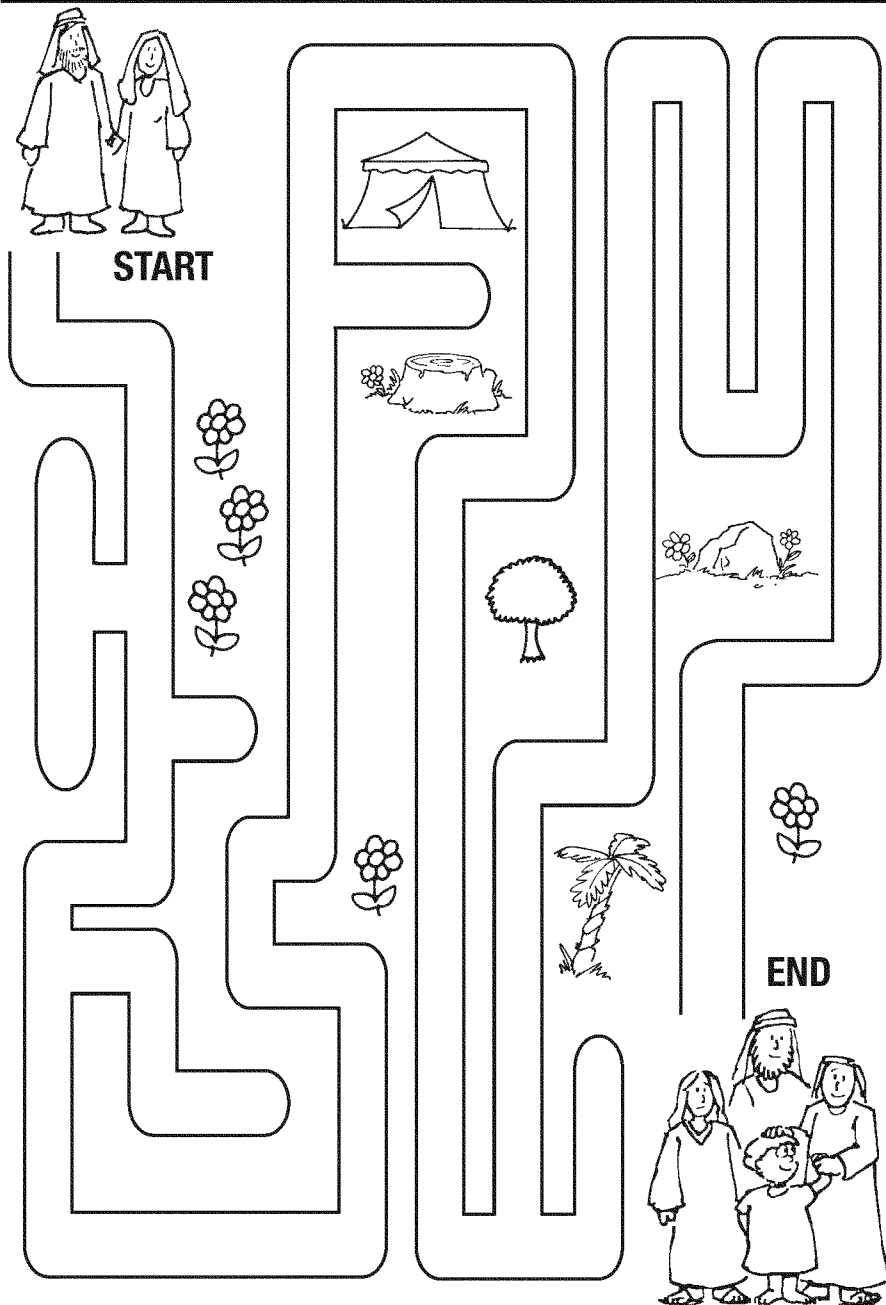

Trace the letters.

Welcome

Paul said the people did love all of God's family in their country.

Help the man and woman get to the others.

He said they should love people more and more, and try to live a quiet life.
