

Joining us via Livestream

It has been brought to our attention that many of our members who have not joined Facebook did not know how to access our Live Stream this morning. While it is a bit cumbersome, it is absolutely possible to watch the live service without being a Facebook member. You can also watch the recordings of our services without being a Facebook member. We are evaluating other services, but Facebook provides streaming for free, and all our archives are currently on Facebook

To watch the live stream, go to this link - <https://www.facebook.com/LittleSwataraCOB/>

Facebook will ask you to “Log In” or “Create New Account.” You can safely ignore both.

As you scroll down the page, you will get a notification that says “See more of Little Swatara...” and another attempt to log in or create a new account. Ignore both and click on “Not Now.”

Now you can simply scroll down the page until you see the live stream or the recordings. Click on them to view. The only thing you will not get is the notification when the live stream starts, you will have to actively go to the page to find it. You will also not be able to comment so prayer requests would need to be emailed or texted to Pastor Matt.

At this point, while news and events are changing daily, we plan to Livestream again next week in accordance with the requests from Governor Wolf to limit public gatherings, so please share this information as widely as you can.
