

THE TIGERTALK

PRISTINE POLOS

When I first visited LSU, a girl with a pristinely pressed yellow polo showed my mom and me around campus. Her enthusiasm about the school was absolutely infectious, and I left my tour knowing I wanted to call this place home. Fast forward a few months, and I now have my very own pristinely pressed polo. This past Sunday, I reached one of my ultimate goals; I became a seasoned LSU Ambassador. My associate class and I went through a rigorous selections process and completed countless hours of training, which has all finally paid off! Guided by my big buddy, I received my polo in front of my seventy-four closest friends. Words cannot describe how incredibly blessed I am to be in an organization as phenomenal as LSU Ambassadors, and I'm so excited to see what the future holds.

Tarus Tolbert

MLK Day of Service

Being a member of the MLK committee was a great experience but I learned the most when I became the team's lead planner for the day of service event. When I originally signed up for it I didn't know what I was getting myself into, but it was all worth it. This project called for a lot of precise planning, list making, and definitely patience. There was support for LSU and this event from people within community and throughout campus. I am proud to say that the day ran smoothly and although we hit a few bumps in the road we were able to recover quickly. I'm thankful to anyone who had anything do with the success of this day and giving back to our community. This includes BR Hope Zone, Andrea Grant and Wes Heath from LSU's OMA, BRCC, the committee members, and all the LSU volunteers. There is a lot to take away from Monday and I plan to take every suggestion into consideration to make next year's event even better.

Tia Jordan

A Goodbye from Ms. Bonnie

December 1, 2017 marked my tenure at LSU. Wow what a wonderful ride this journey had been! I can definitely say that my 31 years of service at this great institution was the way to “GEOUX” for me!

It is with such bitter-sweet emotions that I decided to bid this chapter of my life farewell. I have enjoyed my time at LSU, mostly due to great people I met along the way; my employees, the students and parents, my colleagues, and supervisors, all who have had a lasting impression upon my heart.

The LSU Ambassadors, past and present, will always be dear and near to my heart. You all are among the most incredible people I have had the pleasure of working with. You are the best and brightest student organization that serves the LSU community and you do it with such dignity and pride. It has always been easy to boast about your dedication in addition to all the accomplishments you've achieved over the many years I've been affiliated with you. I've watched you all grow professionally and personally and it warms my heart to say how proud I am of the LSU Ambassadors. I will always remember and appreciate the support you so selflessly gave and as I depart I want to thank you because what you gave from the heart made such a difference in the lives of so many students when they needed you most. I am happy to have had the opportunity to share my time with each of you and to the LSU Ambassadors I say "GEOUX TIGERS"!

Upcoming Dates:

- January 19th
    - FOAP Info Meeting
  - January 21st
    - Companion Animal Alliance Service Day
    - General Member Retreat
  - January 22nd
    - SROW Sunday Meeting #1
  - January 23rd
    - FOAP Info Meeting
  - January 25th
    - Address Updates Due
    - FOAP Apps Due
  - January 27th
    - Kick-Off LSU
    - FOAP Selections
  - January 28th
    - Saturday Tour
  - FOAP Selections
  - January 29th
    - SROW Sunday Meeting #2

Take Note: