Elders' Minute

June 2013

In keeping with the theme of better communication, here is another installment of the Elders' Minute. The goal is to keep you up to date on the happenings at Maranatha, to keep you encouraged at all that God is doing and for you to know how to specifically pray given the various issues that arise. To that end, thank you for all you do in helping Maranatha towards its vision of Reaching All Generations for Christ.

1. Reaching All Generations for Christ is the vision of Maranatha. When churches turn inward, they stagnate and lose sight of the Great Commission. Jesus commanded us according to Matthew 28:19-20 to “Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.” Making disciples of all nations means interacting with those who might not be the same as us. Differences can be unnerving because we often fear what we do not understand. Reaching the Next Generation means loving on people right where they are at and being flexible to their needs.
2. Reaching All Generations often entails dealing with conflict. Conflict stinks but it is inevitable within any church, let alone one our size. Conflict can either bring people together or drive them apart and it all depends upon how it is handled. Fortunately Jesus gave us a model to follow in Matthew 18:15-17. “If your brother sins against you, go and show him his fault just between the two of you. If he listens to you, you have won your brother over. But if he will not listen take one or two others along, so that every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.” The point here is that conflict needs to be addressed one-to-one before it goes before others. So take the risk, go to your brother or sister who you feel has sinned against you and talk to them. Bring love and patience with you and you might be surprised at how God works even in the midst of conflict.
3. In the event that the conflict continues, we want to remind you of the Conflict Resolution Team led by Mike & Sandy Prusinski. Mike is part of our Elder Board and Sandy usually can be found somewhere in the church serving with a smile. Their role is to aid in resolving conflict and making sure people feel heard by leadership when needed.
4. Pastor Dan held a symposium with three local business leaders from the community and our church. The goal was to gain insight from other leaders to promote effective leadership amongst our team. Dan’s report was that these leaders were well received. He also commented on how grateful he is for the immense gifts evident in our body.
5. Hey Rube. As of last Sunday we welcomed 47 new volunteers for children and youth ministries for the summer. By now you have probably seen Pastor Tony at the back of the sanctuary making the “Big Ask”. Thank you to all of you who volunteered for this vital ministry.

6. Budget time. Our last Elder's meeting on May 14th was primarily devoted to reviewing the proposed 2013-14 budget. Without the time and talents of our finance team, this process would be very difficult and a special thank you is in order for this team. Hours and hours are spent preparing budgets with the goal of honoring God with the funds He has graciously entrusted to us.
7. New Sunday service times (8:45 AM & 10:30 AM). This Sunday, June 2nd, we launch our new service schedule that includes the grand opening of our remodeled sanctuary space and Summer Children's Church during both hours. The new chairs for the space, paint for the sanctuary, and carpeting squares for the fellowship hall are scheduled to arrive in the next few weeks.

A Little Fun with Our Mothers...

On Mother's Day we saw a slideshow of mothers of our congregation. I inadvertently left out two sweet photos that I would like to share with you, and have a little fun. If you can be the first to call the church office and correctly identify this mother, you will receive a prize. If you call after or before office hours, please leave your name, and guess, at Extension 1 with a phone number that I can reach you. Our answering machine will give me the time you called. Thanks, and enjoy these wonderful reminders of motherhood.
